1. Regulation 1: General Policy

- 1.1. The Regulations of the RMLL are subject to the Bylaws, Regulations, and Policies imposed by Lacrosse Canada (“LC”) and the Alberta Lacrosse Association (“ALA”). Where a conflict arises between these Regulations and the Bylaws, Regulations, and Policies of the ALA or LC, the ALA or LC rules will govern.
- 1.2. Each RMLL primary contact, secondary contact, coach, manager, and trainer, as an official of the Franchise, is responsible for reading, understanding, and the proper observance of the RMLL Bylaws and Regulations as well as LC and ALA Bylaws, Regulations, and Policies.
- 1.3. RMLL Regulations are the general rules which govern all the Divisions within the RMLL.
 - 1.3.1. These Regulations of the RMLL shall not be amended except as described within the Bylaws of the RMLL.
 - 1.3.2. Each Member shall be entitled to a copy of the Regulations of the RMLL as published by the RMLL from time to time.
- 1.4. A Division Operating Policy, ratified annually by the RMLL Executive, may have further additions to and/or establish certain rules within the jurisdiction and sanction of the RMLL Mission Statement, Bylaws, and Regulations.
 - 1.4.1. A Division Operating Policy shall only include the additional regulations specific to the Division and shall not include regulations stated elsewhere.
 - 1.4.2. A Division Operating Policy shall not be amended except as described within the Bylaws of the RMLL.
 - 1.4.3. If a conflict arises between a Division Operating Policy and these Regulations, these Regulations will govern.

2. Regulation 2: Playing Divisions

- 2.1. The RMLL governs the following playing Divisions: Senior A (when established), Senior B, Senior C, Junior A, Junior B Tier I, Junior B Tier II, Junior B Tier III, Senior Major Female and Junior Major Female.
- 2.2. The RMLL, through the Executive, reserves to itself the right to move a Franchise from one Division to another if the Executive deems to be in the best interest of the lacrosse.

- 2.3. A RMLL Division with more than five (5) Franchises may establish sub-divisions of no less than three (3) Franchises in each sub-division.
- 2.4. A RMLL Division may play Regular Season interlock games with another RMLL Division with the approval of each of the affected Divisions and the RMLL Executive.

3. Regulation 3: Franchises

- 3.1. A Franchise is a group of persons comprised of not less than twenty (20) players with at least one Coach, all of whom are registered with the RMLL. At the discretion of the Division Commissioner, the minimum of 20 players may be waived. Each Franchise accepted by the RMLL Executive shall be entitled to a Franchise Certificate certifying the Franchise Holder holds a Franchise in the RMLL. The certificate is only transferable in accordance with these Regulations.
- 3.2. To apply for a Franchise Certificate or to request a Franchise Certificate reinstatement, the potential Franchise Holder must submit a completed "New Franchise Certificate Request" signed by the duly authorized Officers of the registered body corporate of the potential Franchise to the RMLL Executive Director as per the annual deadline. See Schedule 2 for the submission requirements. In addition, the Request must adhere to any respective Division Operating Policy.
- 3.3. To request a transfer to another RMLL Division for the upcoming season the Franchise Holder must submit a completed "Division Tier Change Request" signed by a duly authorized Officer of the Franchise Holder to the RMLL Executive Director as per the annual deadline. See Schedule 3 for submission requirements. In addition, the Request must adhere to the respective Division Operating Policy.
- 3.4. Each Franchise Holder must complete on an annual basis a Franchise Certificate in the RMLL Franchise Management System by the annual deadline. See Schedule 1. Any changes to the Franchise Certificate must be updated as the change occurs.
 - 3.4.1. The Franchise Certificate contacts include but are not limited to the Board of Directors and/or Officers/Executive, primary Franchise contact, secondary Franchise contact, financial contact, scheduling contact, Franchise registrar, manager, head coach, assistant coaches, and trainers.

- 3.4.2. Name, mailing address, home number or cell number, and e-mail address are required for each contact. In addition, the NCCP number is required for both Head and Assistant Coaches. The flag for e-mail address for the Primary Contact, Secondary Contact, Head Coach, and Manager must be set to view.
- 3.5. A duly authorized Officer of the Franchise Holder must complete and sign the Franchise Certificate Form and return to the RMLL Executive Director. See Schedule 5.
- 3.6. The Primary or the Secondary Contact hold the one vote for the Franchise and one person may not represent more than one RMLL Franchise as a Primary Contact.
- 3.7. The Franchise may be sold or transferred subject to the approval of the majority of the teams of that Division and the RMLL Executive. The Division and the RMLL Executive shall be entitled to impose such reasonable conditions with respect to the transfer.
- 3.7.1. Application for approval of a Franchise transfer must be submitted in writing to the RMLL Executive Director prior to November 1 of the past playing Season. In case of emergency, this date may be waived by the RMLL Executive. See Schedule 4.
- 3.8. The approval process for a transfer of a RMLL Franchise requires:
- 3.8.1. Minutes of each of the existing Franchise Holder and the proposed Franchise Holder transferee approving the transfer of the Franchise, the disposition of any funds held or owed by the RMLL, a direction as to who is responsible for the outstanding invoices to the RMLL, a transfer application (see Schedule 4), and the terms and conditions of the transfer.
- 3.8.2. The filing with the application of a copy of the contract or any agreement related to the transfer.
- 3.8.3. The proposed Franchise transferee becomes a member of a member association of the LC and authorized to participate in the RMLL.
- 3.9. A Franchise Holder will continue to hold the Franchise Certificate unless:
- 3.9.1. The member association of the LC does not approve its application for membership or withdraws it.
- 3.9.2. The Franchise Holder submits written notification relinquishing their Franchise Certificate to the RMLL Executive Director notwithstanding that a Franchise Holder who has relinquished shall continue to be liable to the RMLL for any monies owed to the RMLL and for fees up to such date of notice of relinquishing.

4. Regulation 4: Annual Filings

- 4.1. Each Franchise Holder must file with the RMLL Executive Director on an annual basis proof of filings of their annual return and Schedule 5.

5. Regulation 5: Fees and Bonds

- 5.1. An application for a new Franchise Certificate, a Tier Change request and a Franchise Transfer request must include a refundable application bond of one thousand and five hundred dollars ($1,500.00).

- 5.1.1. The bond will be held by the RMLL for a probationary period the later of twenty-four (24) months or two (2) playing seasons. At the end of the probationary period the entire bond will be refunded to the Franchise Holder at the end of such period if the Franchise has not defaulted a game in the two (2) year period and has no money owing to the RMLL.

- 5.1.1.1. If the Franchise withdraws at any time during the probationary period, the bond will not be refunded.

- 5.2. The annual Franchise Fee of eight hundred dollars ($800.00) and a two hundred dollar ($200.00) contingency fund is payable by March 1. Payment of the fees and any other obligations to the RMLL shall entitle a Franchise to roster players and to one vote at the Annual General Meeting. Failure to pay fees when due, may result in a Franchise being denied the ability to participate in all sanctioned RMLL activities.

- 5.3. For New Franchise Requests, the Franchise Fee must accompany the submission request.

- 5.3.1. The Franchise Fee of a New Franchise Request will not be refunded if the Franchise is withdrawn after a Franchise Certificate has been granted.

- 5.4. The annual Franchise Fee for a Franchise holding an existing Franchise will not be refunded if a team withdraws after February 1.

- 5.5. Each Franchise Holder is required to submit a performance bond of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) with the Franchise request.

- 5.5.1. If a Franchise Holder voluntarily withdraws their Franchise between September 1 and December 31 of the past playing Season, the performance bond in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) retained by the RMLL, will be refunded to the Franchise Holder if the Franchise has no money owing to the RMLL.
- 5.5.2. If a Franchise Holder withdraws their Franchise between February 1 and prior to the end of the current playing Season in their Division, the performance bond in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) will not be refunded and will be transferred to the RMLL General account.
- 5.6. Interest earned on the monies invested for purposes of bonds (refundable application and performance bonds) shall become revenue of the RMLL and therefore is allocated to general funds as earned.
- 5.7. The RMLL will invoice each Franchise Holder in a Division qualifying for Provincials the ALA Provincial Entry Fee as set annually by the ALA.
- 5.7.1. As decided by each Division, the ALA Provincial Entry Fee for the number of teams playing in the Season Provincial game(s) may be split amongst the teams in a specific Division. This split fee is payable by March 1.
- 5.7.2. The split ALA Provincial Entry Fee will not be refunded to a Franchise if a Franchise withdraws after February 1.
- 5.8. Each Franchise in the Senior B Division must submit to the RMLL annually a Presidents' Cup Travel Fund Levy of five hundred dollars ($500.00), payable by March 1.
- 5.8.1. The Presidents' Cup Travel Fund Levy will not be refunded to a Franchise if a Franchise withdraws after February 1.
- 5.9. Each Franchise in the Senior C Division will be invoiced one hundred and twenty dollars ($120.00) which will be given to the annual Senior C Provincial Champion (or next highest-ranking team) who attends the Sr. C Tournament to represent the RMLL.
- 5.9.1. The one hundred and twenty dollars ($120.00) will not be refunded to a Franchise if a Franchise withdraws after February 1.
- 5.10. Each Alberta Franchise in the Junior B Tier I Division must submit to the RMLL annually a Founders' Cup Travel Fund Levy of five hundred dollars ($500.00), payable by March 1.

- 5.10.1. The Founders' Cup Travel Fund Levy will not be refunded to a Franchise if a Franchise withdraws after February 1.
- 5.11. When the Larry Bishop Memorial Cup is a Junior B Tier I playoff format, at the end of the Season, the expense for floor, Referee game fees, Referee per diem, Referee travel and Referee Accommodation will be split by the number of Franchises in the Division.
- 5.12. Each Alberta Franchise in the Junior B Tier I Division must submit to the RMLL three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) for the Jr. B Tier I Travel Account. The three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) is split into two invoices of one thousand and five hundred dollars ($1,500.00) each over two years and payable by March 1.
- 5.12.1. The funds for the Junior B Tier I Travel Account are held in a separate RMLL bank account and reported on the RMLL Balance Sheet as Restricted Funds.
- 5.12.1.1. The interest earned on the funds in the Junior B Bank Account belongs to the Junior B Tier I Division.
- 5.12.2. If an Alberta Tier I Franchise Holder voluntarily withdraws their Franchise between September 1 and December 31 of the past playing Season, the three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) or one thousand and five hundred dollars ($1,500.00) in the Jr. B Tier I Travel Account, will be refunded to the Franchise Holder if the Franchise has no money owing to the RMLL.
- 5.12.3. If a Franchise Holder withdraws their Franchise between February 1 and prior to the end of the current playing Season in their Division, the three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) or one thousand and five hundred dollars ($1,500.00) in the Jr. B Tier I Travel Account will not be refunded.
- 5.12.4. An Alberta Tier I Franchise withdrawing funds from the Jr. B Tier I Travel Account must pay back the amount withdrawn within thirty (30) days from being declared the Alberta Founders' Cup Representative.
- 5.12.4.1. If funds are not paid back within thirty (30) days from being declared the Alberta Founders' Cup Representative, the Franchise Holder, and the Members of the Franchise Holder, excluding call-ups, will be placed in bad standing until funds are paid back.
- 5.13. Each Jr. B Tier II Franchise will be invoiced a Playoff Floor and Official Funding Fee of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) and a Playoff/Provincial Travelling Fee of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00). Both fees are payable by March 1.

- 5.13.1. The Playoff Floor and Official Funding Fee and the Playoff/Provincial Travelling Fee will not be refunded to a Franchise if the Franchise is withdrawn after February 1.
- 5.14. Each Franchise in the Junior B Tier II Division must submit to the RMLL annually a Western Canadian Championship Travel Fund Levy of three hundred dollars ($300.00), payable by March 1.
- 5.14.1. The Western Canadian Championship Travel Fund Levy will not be refunded to a Franchise if a Franchise withdraws after February 1.
- 5.15. During the Season, a Franchise will be sent an invoice for Referee accommodation and/or Referee airfare when the expense occurs. These invoices are due ten (10) days from invoice date.
- 5.16. At the end of the RMLL Season, each Franchise is sent a RMLL invoice for the ALRA Assigning Fee and fees for any mileage, and per diems for Referees assigned to their home games throughout the Season, excluding ALA Provincial games. Fee rates are as per ALA Regulations. This invoice is due ten (10) days from invoice date.
- 5.17. All fees shall be paid to the RMLL Office by negotiable money order, cheque or certified cheque

Rocky Mountain Lacrosse League

PO Box 47083 Creekside
Calgary, Alberta
T3P 0B9

- 5.18. All RMLL invoices are due thirty (30) days from invoice date except invoices for Franchise fines, Provincial Entry Fees, Referee accommodation, Referee airfare and the RMLL/ALRA End of Season Fees which are due ten (10) days from invoice date.
- 5.18.1. A Franchise must pay fines assessed against them and/or their members within ten (10) days of invoice date or be liable to further fines as penalty for non-payment.
- 5.18.2. A Franchise with past due invoice(s) cannot participate in Playoff, RMLL Championship, Provincial or National play until invoice(s) has been paid.

5.19. Any Franchise which presents a NSF cheque will be fined fifty dollars ($50.00).

5.20. If any other group, league, division, or association accepted by the RMLL demands a fee or bond from its own franchise (s), such fees and bonds shall be in addition to those required by the RMLL and set out in the Bylaws and Regulations.

5.21. All fees and fines from the RMLL Regulations and Bylaws shall go into the RMLL General Account.

5.22. Ninety (90) percent of casino profits will be allotted to the RMLL to be distributed periodically. The remainder will be distributed to Members based on their participation at the Casino.

5.23. In addition to the annual Franchise Fee, an annual player registration fee may be established by the RMLL for each Division.

6. Regulation 6: Facilities

6.1. Each Franchise is responsible for acquiring their home arena and booking the arena for their home games for the Season (Regular play, Playoff play, RMLL Championship play and Provincial play). Each Division will determine who is responsible for booking an arena for RMLL Championship and Provincial play. The arena must conform to RMLL facility requirements (see Schedule 6), must be available for home games on days and dates as required by the Division (Regular play, Playoff play, RMLL Championship play and Provincial play), must have a Referee Change Room with a shower, and must be approved by the RMLL Executive.

6.1.1. Games, (Regular play, Playoff play, RMLL Championship play or Provincial play) may not be held in Soccer Centres or Field Houses unless:

6.1.1.1. The ALA has approved the facility for Major games and

6.1.1.2. The majority of teams in the Division vote in favour of using the facility for games and 6.1.1.3. The RMLL Executive has ratified the use of the facility for games.

- 6.2. All Franchises must send to the RMLL Executive Director the specifications of their home arena. See Schedule 6 for Facility Specification Form.
- 6.3. All Franchises must enter their home arena and a back-up arena in the RMLL Franchise Management System prior to January 1.
- 6.4. The home Franchise is responsible for making sure:
- 6.4.1. The arena floor line markings are as per LC Play.
 - 6.4.2. The nets are LC approved and the correct size for Division play.
 - 6.4.3. The mesh shall be in good condition, black, the correct size and not strung too tightly.
 - 6.4.4. Two LC approved shot clocks are installed and operational or a stopwatch and horn is available for the thirty-second timekeeper.
 - 6.4.5. The score clock is operational and has an electronic buzzer or gong or bell available for the timekeeper.
 - 6.4.6. Score clock to count down penalty minutes.
- 6.5. The home Franchise shall be held responsible for assuring the playing area is suitable for all games to the satisfaction of the Referees, and that police protection is provided if the Senior and/or Junior Divisions deem it necessary.
- 6.6. No Franchise may change its home game from one arena to another without prior permission of the Division Commissioner and notification to the Executive Director. Such permission may be granted only if the move complies with the RMLL Regulations.
- 6.7. As per ALA Regulation 6B.03 all facility contracts for Major Lacrosse Provincials must be in the name of Alberta Lacrosse Association unless approved by the ALA Executive Director.

7. Regulation 7: Division Play

- 7.1. Regular Season play will commence no earlier than the last weekend of April and no later than the middle of the second week in May and be finished no later than the last week in July.

7.2. Senior B Division Game Days – Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday

Senior C Division Game Days – Monday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday

Junior A Division Game Days – Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday

Tier I Division Game Days – Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday

Tier II Division Game Days – Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday

Senior Major Female Game Days – Monday, Tuesday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday

Junior Major Female Game Days – Monday, Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday

7.3. Junior A and Junior B Tier I Pre-Season Practice Days – Junior A will not schedule floor times on Tuesday and Thursday and Junior B Tier I will not schedule floor times on Monday and Wednesday for the months of March and April.

7.4. Division Playoffs will commence no earlier than five (5) days following the completion of Regular Season play.

7.5. ALA Provincials or RMLL Championships will commence following the completion of Division Playoffs and be finished no later than seven (7) days before a scheduled National Championship, unless approved otherwise by the respective Division Commissioner.

8. Regulation 8: Season Schedules

8.1. Off Season/Pre-Season

8.1.1. Each RMLL Franchise is required to complete a Team Event entry in the RMLL Team Management System for all their Franchise lacrosse activities held in Alberta during the off season/pre-season. Franchise lacrosse activities requiring a Team Event include: a team activity which includes a team's roster players, protected list players, U17 graduating players, Division free agents and exhibition games.

8.2. Regular Season

- 8.2.1. Each Division must determine their Division Scheduling Constraints, including dates and times for their Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial games, at their annual Division Planning Meeting.
- 8.2.2. Prior to November 30, each Division Commissioner must submit their Division scheduling constraints to the Executive Director along with the format, dates and times for their Division Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial play.
- 8.2.3. Prior to January 15, all Franchises must have entered their Franchise scheduling constraints and home game arena time slots in the RMLL Scheduling System.
- 8.2.4. The “In Progress” schedule will be completed for all Divisions by March 1.
- 8.2.5. Schedules will be moved to “final” by March 15.

8.3. Division Playoffs, RMLL Championships and ALA Provincials

- 8.3.1. Each Division must confirm their Provincial series format by July 15 of the current playing season for the upcoming playing season.
 - 8.3.2. Each Division Commissioner, in consultation with the teams involved, shall confirm the facilities for Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial play, as per the dates and times agreed at the annual Division Planning, five (5) days prior to the start of each round.
- 8.4. All games in the Division are to be played as scheduled unless determined otherwise by the Division Commissioner. Only the Division Commissioner, through the Executive Director, has the authority to request a game to be rescheduled.
- 8.5. If the start of the game is delayed more than thirty (30) minutes, the Referees may determine at such time if the game will or will not be played.

9. Regulation 9: Postponements

- 9.1. No game may be postponed without the approval of the Division Commissioner, otherwise such games will be considered as defaults.
- 9.2. In the event of severe weather causing unplayable conditions, or if the playing area is unplayable and cannot be repaired by game time, the home Franchise shall immediately call the Division Commissioner to report conditions and request postponement. If the request is granted, the home Franchise must immediately contact the visiting Franchise and their ALRA

Assignor. If the visiting Franchise is contacted before departure, no expense will be involved. If the ALRA Assignor can contact the Referees prior to their departure, Referee game fees will not be paid. The Assigning Fee will still be applicable.

9.3. If, however, the Visiting Franchise has left for the game or if conditions make the playing area unplayable after the Visiting Franchise has started en route, the Home Franchise shall immediately call the Division Commissioner and request a postponement. Regardless of the postponement being granted, the Home Franchise must pay the Officials, both the game rate and mileage/per diem rate. The ALRA Assigning Fee will still be applicable. The Visiting Franchise will not be reimbursed for any of their expenses when a game is cancelled due to “an act of God”.

9.4. In the event rain or some other condition makes the playing area unfit after the game has started, the Referee shall have the authority to stop the game; and if forty minutes have been played, it will constitute a Regular Season game.

9.4.1. If a Playoff, RMLL Championship or a Provincial game:

9.4.1.1. If less than forty (40) minutes have been played the game will be rescheduled.

9.4.1.2. If more than forty (40) minutes have been played and there is a six (6) or greater spread, then this will constitute a Playoff or Provincial game.

9.4.1.3. If more than forty (40) minutes have been played and there is less than a six (6) goal spread, then the game will be rescheduled will be played with the following restrictions:

9.4.1.3.1. Same roster as the original game.

9.4.1.3.2. Original game does not count as a game served for a player serving a suspension.

9.4.1.3.3. Major infractions assessed in the original game are valid.

9.5. In the event of a game commenced but awarded to one Franchise before completion, the scoring records at the time of the award is made shall be considered official.

9.6. In the event conditions make play impossible before the completion of forty minutes of play, the Referee may cancel the game and the game will be rescheduled. The Home Franchise will immediately notify the Division Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director.

10. Regulation 10: Defaults

10.1. Game Defaults

10.1.1. In the event a Franchise defaults a game, the defaulting Franchise shall pay all legitimate expenses, as determined by the Division Commissioner, incurred as a consequence of the default. The money owed shall be based upon detailed information from the affected Franchise. In addition, to paying the legitimate expenses, the defaulting Franchise must pay a fine to the RMLL.

10.1.2. A Franchise which defaults a game in a Provincial, RMLL Championship or Playoff series shall be suspended immediately. All games not played in the series shall be counted as wins to the Franchise scheduled against the defaulting Franchise.

10.1.3. In the event of a defaulted game, where the game was not played, the non-defaulting Franchise shall be awarded two (2) points in standings and the players on the roster of the non-defaulting Franchise will be credited with one game played.

10.2. Season Defaults

10.2.1. In the event a Franchise folds after their Division Schedule has been created, thus defaulting all their games in a Season, in addition to a RMLL fine, the Franchise will be responsible for all costs incurred for creating a revised Division Schedule.

11. Regulation 11: Uniforms

11.1. As per LC Rules.

11.2. All RMLL Franchises must have home and away uniforms. Home is the dark colour and away is the light colour.

11.3. Any Franchise showing up to a game without their proper colour jerseys will be subject to a fine.

12. Regulation 12: Rules of Play

12.1. Rules of play in RMLL shall be those of the LC Rule Book, in RMLL Regulations and in the ALA Regulations for the current season.

12.2. Overtime

12.2.1. Regular Season Play: if a game is tied after regulation time, there will be a five-minute overtime period, sudden victory. If the score remains tied after the overtime period, the game will be declared a tie and each Franchise will be given one (1) point for the game.

12.2.2. Playoff, RMLL Championship and ALA Provincial Play: The Referee shall order the game to continue after a two (2) minute rest. The game continues for a full ten minute stop time.

12.2.2.1. If the score is tied after the first overtime period, the game shall continue after a ten (10) minute rest. The teams will continue to play twenty (20) minute stop time periods, with a ten (10) minute rest between each period until a goal is scored (sudden victory).

12.3. A Referee Report will be required if the Referees and Franchises decide in a game to implement straight time (run time) or shorten the length of the between periods intermission.

12.4. Referees must record on the game sheet the number of players they count on the bench and the number of bench personnel they count on the bench.

12.5. The home Franchise will be given a delay of game penalty if Off Floor Officials are not in place when the Referee blows the whistle to start the game.

12.6. Upon a request from a goalie, the Referees may allow a water break if the request is not after a goal or a penalty.

13. Regulation 13: Maintenance of Order

13.1. It is the home Franchise responsibility to supply all the Off-Floor Officials required for home games.

13.1.1. Each Franchise will train a select group of individuals, eighteen years of age and older, for the role of Off-Floor Officials.

13.1.2. The ALRA will assign an Official to operate the shot clock for Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial games.

13.2. Off-Floor Officials are responsible for reading, understanding, and following the procedures listed in the LC Off-Floor Officials Guide.

- 13.3. The home Franchise is responsible for ensuring all the people assigned to the time-keepers bench are in place fifteen (15) minutes prior to the start of the game.
- 13.4. The home Franchise Manager is responsible for submitting at least two copies of the game sheet to the scorekeeper fifteen (15) minutes before the game time.
- 13.5. The home Franchise is responsible for cleaning up any blood, water and or sweat from the playing surface during a game. If the home Franchise does not have access to the arena mop, the home Franchise should include a mop in their equipment.
- 13.6. Any person under the age of eighteen (18) years old, who goes on the floor during the game periods, must wear a helmet and facemask. Enforcement is the responsibility of the home Franchise. Failure to comply will result in the home Franchise being fined pursuant to RMLL Regulation 40.20.
- 13.7. The home Franchise shall be responsible for the provision of police protection if the Division Commissioner deems it necessary.
- 13.8. In cases where the spectators in any way interfere with the players or officials to delay the progress or affect the result of the game, the Referees shall declare the game off and report the circumstances to the Division Commissioner immediately. The game is either rescheduled or defaulted based on an investigation by the Division Commissioner.
- 13.9. All persons, including those who pay admission fees or receive passes, who attend games under the jurisdiction of the RMLL, shall be deemed to have agreed that they were admitted to the grounds on the condition that they would subject themselves to and abide by the provision of the rules of the RMLL, even to the extent that they may be subjected to the necessary force to insure their expulsion by the police, the referee, or the officers of the home Franchise.
- 13.10. Each home Franchise will be responsible for providing 20 warm-up balls to the visiting Franchise during Regular Season, RMLL Championship, Playoff and Provincial games.
- 13.10.1. Each visiting Franchise is responsible for returning twenty (20) warm-up balls to the home Franchise.

13.11. Franchises are permitted to play music during games. Music is only allowed during dead ball stoppages such as timeouts, goals, and penalties and between periods. Noncompliance by the home Franchise will result in a warning for the first offence and for each additional offence a fine of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) and may result in further sanctions.

14. Regulation 14: ALRA Referee Assignment

14.1. The Referee Assignor will assign Referees with the appropriate qualifications and rankings and minimize the number of times the same Referee officiates the same Franchise.

14.2. In Playoffs, RMLL Championships and Provincials, the Referee Assignor will endeavor to schedule the best Officials available to ensure appropriate coverage of games. Where necessary the Referee Assignor may assign out-of-town Officials. Preference will be given to Officials who attended the ALRA Uber Clinic.

14.2.1. In each Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial Series, normally a Franchise will not have the same Referee crew assigned to each game.

14.3. In Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial play, the Official assigned to operate the shot clock will have the qualifications and ranking to officiate the game if required. If an Official with the appropriate qualifications is not available, the ALRA Assignor will inform the RMLL Executive Director.

14.4. The ALRA will take all necessary steps not to schedule a Referee to officiate at any RMLL game if the Referee has a relative playing or coaching on one of the two Franchises scheduled for play.

14.5. In moving Referees around the RMLL, the RMLL and the ALRA will try to minimize travel expenses when:

14.5.1. Minimizing the number of times, the same Referee officiates one Franchise.

14.5.2. Normally moving Senior Referees from their local center to another area by having the Referee officiate a minimum of two (2) games.

14.5.3. Assigning Referees to games in arenas where local Referees are unavailable.

15. Regulation 15: Referee Game Fee Payment

- 15.1. All Referees are to be paid prior to the start of each Regular Season, Playoff and RMLL Championship game by the Home Franchise. The ALA pays the Officials for Provincial games.
- 15.2. Each Referee is to be paid by cheque or cash. Note: Cash payments must be the exact amount.
- 15.3. A RMLL Referee Receipt form is located on the RMLL website for a Franchise to use as a receipt. Each Referee must sign the receipt and complete the city/town where they are traveling from, state whether mileage is being split with another game and enter their mileage travelled. The completed receipt is the Franchise record to verify the RMLL/ALRA invoice sent at the end of the Season.
- 15.4. Referee Game Fees are as per ALA Regulation 14D.01:
Junior A and Senior B - $85.00 per Referee
Senior C, and Junior B Tier I - $79.00 per Referee
Junior B Tier II, Tier III, Senior Major Female and Junior Major Female - $73.00 per Referee
- 15.5. If a cheque given to the Referee is returned NSF, the Franchise responsible will be fined $50.00 plus all bank charges. The fine will double with each additional occurrence of an NSF cheque by the same Franchise. The RMLL will pay the Referee(s) and will invoice the offending Franchise the Referee Game fees, the fine and all bank charges.
- 15.6. If the Referees are not paid prior to the start of the game, the Referees will not proceed with the game and the Division Commissioner will be contacted. The game will be declared a default and the Home Franchise will be fined, etc. by the RMLL.
- 15.7. Referee “No Show”
- 15.7.1. If only one Referee shows up, the Home Franchise will contact their Referee Assignor and then notify the Division Commissioner. If another Referee cannot be found, the Referee who showed up will be paid and the Division Commissioner will work with the RMLL Executive Director and ALRA to reschedule the game.
- 15.7.2. If both Franchises are present, but no Referees are present, the Home Franchise will contact their Referee Assignor and notify their Division Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director.

- 15.7.3. If the Home Franchise and the Referees are present, but the Visiting Franchise is not present or does not have enough players for the game to proceed, the Referees will be paid, and the Home Franchise will contact their Division Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director. The game will be declared a default and the Visiting Franchise will be fined, etc.
- 15.7.4. If the Visiting Franchise and the Referees are present, but the Home Franchise does not show or the Home Franchise does not have enough players for the game to proceed, the Division Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director will be contacted. The game will be declared a default and the Home Franchise will still be responsible for payment to the Referees and will also be fined etc. by the RMLL.
- 15.7.5. If the game is called by the Referees due to an issue with the Arena, the Division Commissioner will work with the Home Franchise to see if the arena will reimburse the Home Franchise for the cost of the Referees.

16. Regulation 16: Game Sheets

- 16.1. Each Franchise will receive a package of RMLL game sheets at the annual RMLL Planning Meeting and AGM. If a Franchise is unable to attend the annual Planning Meeting and AGM, a fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) may be charged for the delivery of the game sheet package.
- 16.2. The Manager is responsible for the completion of the game sheets. If using a label for the team roster and bench personnel, each Franchise Manager must ensure only players dressed for the game are listed and players listed, including call-ups, do not exceed eighteen (18) runners and two (2) goalies.
- 16.3. The Manager is to ensure all call-ups, including an affiliate player/call-up, is identified on the game with an "AF" after the player's name.
- 16.4. All game sheets are to be scanned and e-mailed by noon the day after the game to the RMLL Statistician, the Division Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director.
- 16.4.1. Submitting the game sheet is the responsibility of the Home Franchise.

17. Regulation 17: RMLL Post-Game Referee Evaluation Form

- 17.1. The form is located on the RMLL website. Each Franchise Manager must print the form for both home and away games.

17.2. The Head Coach from both Franchises must complete the form after the game.

17.3. The forms must be scanned and e-mailed with the game sheet to the RMLL Statistician, the Division Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director.

18. Regulation 18: Statistics

18.1. Each Home Franchise must enter the stats from the game sheet for their home games. A Franchise may use the Game Sheet App during the game or may enter the stats after the game.

18.2. Franchises not using the game sheet app, must enter the box score prior to entering their game sheet stats.

18.3. The person using the game sheet app or entering the stats after the game must be set-up in the RMLL System with the role of "game sheet entry".

18.4. All league statistics are to be verified by the RMLL Statistician.

18.5. The information on a signed off game sheet cannot be changed when the statistics are entered in the RMLL System unless:

18.5.1. Franchise notification and Division Commissioner approval of a goal or assist given to the wrong player;

18.5.2. Additional game misconduct not recorded;

18.5.3. Too many game misconducts recorded on game sheet for infraction;

18.5.4. Penalty recorded doesn't exist.

19. Regulation 19: Bench Personnel and Managers

19.1. Each Franchise must designate and identify one person as the Head Coach both on their Franchise Certificate and on the game sheet.

19.2. Each Junior and Senior Major Female Franchise must have one female coach registered as Bench Personnel on their Franchise Certificate.

- 19.3. Certification requirements: All coaches and trainers in the RMLL shall comply with the minimum standard certification requirements of the LC.
- 19.4. It will be the respective Division Commissioner's responsibility to notify all coaches and trainers in their Division prior to playoffs regarding their status and compliance with the minimum standard certification requirements of the LC.
- 19.5. All Alberta Franchise Bench Personnel (coaches and trainers) and managers must be registered in RMLL RAMP prior to participating in any ALA sanctioned event. This includes all Franchise lacrosse activities held in Alberta during the off season. Lacrosse activities include conditioning camps, pre-season practices, dry land training, training, tryouts, drop-in-floor-time, winter floor times, exhibition games, etc. which include a team's roster players, protected list players, graduating U17 players and Division free agents.
- 19.5.1. RMLL RAMP opens December 1 and closes July 15 – 11:59 PM.
- 19.5.2. A coach and/or trainer registered after July 15 11:59 PM will be subject to a late fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) invoiced by the ALA.
- 19.6. By the RMLL annual deadline, each Franchise is required to enter/update their Bench Personnel (all coaches and trainers) and Managers in the RMLL Franchise Management System.
- 19.6.1. Name, mailing address, home number or cell number, gender and e-mail address are required for each coach, trainer, and manager. In addition, the NCCP number is required for all coaches.
- 19.7. Coaches, Managers, and Trainers must be on their Franchise roster. Only the coaches and trainers on their Franchise roster are to be allowed on the bench during the game.
- 19.8. Player Coaches are only allowed in the Senior C Division and the Senior Major Female Division and must have the minimum Box Coaching Standard certification requirements of the LC.
- 19.9. For Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial Play only coaches who comply with the LC minimum coaching standards and trainers who comply with the LC minimum standards will be allowed on the bench during a game.

20. Regulation 20: Rostering of a Minor Lacrosse Aged Player in Major

20.1. No player who would be required to otherwise register with a Minor Association shall register with a RMLL Franchise and be entered in the RMLL Franchise Management System. However, if upon application to and review by the respective RMLL Division Commissioner, the caliber of the player is such that their development would be better served by playing in the RMLL, the player may have their registration transferred to the RMLL after the following conditions have been met:

20.1.1. The player and their parent/guardian must make a request in writing for the approval of such transfer of registration.

20.1.2. The player's Minor Association, Minor Local Governing Body, and the RMLL Franchise must agree in writing to such transfer of registration.

20.1.3. The President of the RMLL must agree in writing to such transfer of registration.

20.1.4. Upon receipt of the approvals set forth above the RMLL President shall request approval from the ALA. If approved by the ALA, the RMLL President shall notify the player and the appropriate Division Commissioner in writing of such approval.

20.2. Any Minor aged player registered to a RMLL Franchise without the above approvals shall result in suspension of the player and the coach of the RMLL Franchise for whom they played.

21. Regulation 21: Rostered Players

21.1. The RMLL shall have jurisdiction over all amateur Box players who are a minimum of 17 years of age as of December 31, in the year they wish to compete.

21.2. Senior Divisions are open to all players 22 years of age and older in the year in which they wish to compete.

21.2.1. No player under the age of 22 on December 31 in the year they wish to compete shall be on the roster of a Senior Franchise during the season in question.

21.2.2. Any Senior aged player, who has their Senior B playing rights held by a Senior B Franchise, is eligible to play Senior C if the player is not listed on a Senior B Franchise roster in the RMLL Franchise Management System.

21.2.3. Active professional players are not eligible to play Senior C.

21.3. Senior B Franchise Player Rights – Each Senior B Franchise holds the Senior B playing rights to each player listed on their 50/40 Man Protected List, until the player is released or traded.

21.4. Senior B Free Agents – Players not listed on the Senior B 50/40 Man Protected Lists.

21.9. Junior Divisions are open to all players who are under 22 years of age and minimum 17 years of age on December 31 in the year they wish to compete.

21.9.1. Only players who are under 22 years of age and minimum 17 years of age on December 31 of the current playing season shall be eligible to play in a Junior Division. Proof of age shall be in the form of a certificate issued by the appropriate Registrar of Births or equivalent. Alternative proof of age may be accepted by the RMLL Division Commissioner.

21.9.2. Except as provided in Regulation 20, each player of Junior age must be enrolled as a Junior player.

21.10. A player entering Major Lacrosse from Minor Lacrosse in Alberta is the property of the Franchise (s) in the same area as the Minor Club that he/she last played for except where such players' services are waived by the Franchise (s), and subject to the Regulations here printed. If said player refuses to play for such Franchise (s), after sitting out a year, the player becomes a Free Agent. Within ratified boundaries that contain more than one Franchise, the distribution of players graduating will be outlined in the appropriate Division Operating Policy.

21.10.1. If a player, in the last year of U17, was given a one-year release from their Minor Club to play in another Minor Club, then the player's rights are held by the Club giving the release, unless a Division Operating Policy states otherwise.

If a player, in the last year of U17, was given a permanent release from their Minor Club to play in another Minor Club, then the player's rights are held by the last Club they played for.

21.11. Subject to the application of any draft procedures and approved boundaries for a given Division, if a player resides outside the approved boundaries of all Franchises within the Division in which they wish to play, such player shall be a Free Agent for the purposes of his eligibility to play within that Division and shall be entitled to play for any Franchise in such Division. Once the player is on the roster of a Franchise within such Division the player becomes a Member of such Franchise and shall remain a Member of such Franchise until properly released in accordance with these Regulations or the player changes Franchises in accordance with Regulation 20.11.1.

21.11.1. If after the player becomes the Member of a Franchise pursuant to Section 20.11. and subsequently a new Franchise within such Division is approved under these Regulations with approved boundaries within which the player resides, the player shall have the option to either become a Member with the new Franchise or remain a Member of the Franchise with which they are already on the roster. If the player fails to exercise their option in the first year of play of the new Franchise prior to the earlier of any deadline for finalizing Franchise rosters or the beginning of Regular Season play, the player shall forfeit their ability to move to such new Franchise and shall remain a Member with the Franchise with which they are currently a Member of.

21.12. A Junior or Senior player who last played box lacrosse outside of the province of Alberta, or who never played box lacrosse in Alberta, is a Free Agent unless the player is listed on a Franchise's XX Man Protected List.

21.13. Each year the ALA provides a list of Graduating U17 players. If a player was registered with the ALA in the previous playing year, the player will automatically be listed on the Graduating U17 List and will be included in the Graduating U17 Drafts. Franchises may only draft from players on the Graduating U17 List.

21.14. Junior A Franchise Player Rights - Each Junior A Franchise holds the Junior A playing rights to each player listed on their 60/50 Man Protected List, until the player is released or traded.

21.15. Junior A Free Agents

22. Regulation 22: Player Eligibility

22.1. RMLL Intent to Play: In addition to registering directly with a RMLL Franchise, all RMLL players who reside in Alberta must also complete an RMLL Intent-to-Play. Only RMLL players completing the Intent-to-Play will be allowed to go on the floor with an Alberta RMLL Franchise for any ALA sanctioned events. This includes all Franchise lacrosse activities held in Alberta during the off season. Lacrosse activities include conditioning camps, pre-season practices, dry land training, training, tryouts, drop-in-floor-time, winter floor times, exhibition games, etc. which include a team's roster players, protected list players, graduating U17 players and Division free Agents.

22.1.1. The RMLL Intent-to Play opens December 1 and closes July 15 11:59 PM. Late player registrations are not allowed.

22.1.2. Intent-to-Play Link: <http://rml.rampregistrations.com>

22.2. To be eligible to play in Regular Season, Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial play, a player must be listed on the Franchise roster in the RMLL Franchise Management System and have all their contact information, including their RAMP Registration Number entered in the RMLL Franchise Management System, otherwise will be deemed an illegal player.

22.3. A player who last played in a LC Jurisdiction on a team outside of Alberta must have a completed LC Transfer on file with the ALA.

23. Regulation 23: Franchise Responsibility - Player Eligibility Violations

23.1. Any Franchise found guilty of playing an ineligible player during a Regular Season, Playoff, RMLL Championship or Provincial game shall default all games won during which said player was a participant.

23.2. If the game is defaulted, the non-defaulting team shall be awarded two (2) points in Regular Season, Division Playoff, RMLL Championship or Provincial standings and the players on the game day rosters of both teams will be credited with their player stats from the defaulted game except for the ineligible player.

23.3. A Franchise which plays against ineligible players and which willfully conceal knowledge from the Division until it suits their benefit to use it in any protest which arises, shall be considered equally guilty with the offending Franchise, and shall be judged accordingly.

24. Regulation 24: Player Movement

24.1. The RMLL Executive reserves unto itself the discretionary powers to disallow any proposed player movement from Division to Division or Franchise to Franchise if, in the opinion of the RMLL Executive such a move would not be in the best interests of the game of lacrosse generally.

24.2. A player who is listed on the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster for any Franchise in the RMLL shall not play or be listed on the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster of any other Franchise or in any other league without first being properly released by their team of record.

- 24.2.1. A player release is required from the player's last Franchise of record when a player moves to a lateral Franchise in the same Division.
 - 24.2.1.1. The Team Primary or Secondary Contact has the only authority to approve a release of a player whose playing rights are held by the Franchise they are designated as the Primary or Secondary Contact.
 - 24.2.2. Between February 1 and a day before the first Division game a player release is not required if the player is moving to a Franchise in a higher or lower Division than their last Franchise of record. However, the player needs to notify their last Franchise of record that they will not be returning.
 - 24.2.3. After May 1, if a player on a Franchise roster wishes to move to a team in a lower Division, the player must ask their current Franchise of record for a release.
 - 24.2.4. After May 1, if a registered Franchise player is moving to a Franchise in a higher Division, a release is not required but the higher Division Franchise must notify the lower Division Franchise and the RMLL Executive Director of the move.
 - 24.2.5. In a Division without an XX Man Protected List, if in the following two Seasons the player in 24.2.3 or 24.2.4 decides to play on a Franchise in the Division they left, then the player's last Franchise of record in that Division will have the player's first playing rights. The player can only be a call-up for the Franchise holding the player's first playing rights in that Division. After two Seasons of playing in a different Division, the player would then be considered a Free Agent and could play for any Franchise in that Division.
- 24.3. A Franchise releases a registered player from their roster, by the Primary or Secondary Contact sending an e-mail notification of the release to the Division Commissioner and the Executive Director. The Executive Director will remove the player from the roster of the Franchise on the RMLL Franchise Management System and will post the release on the RMLL website under the Transactions for that Division.
 - 24.4. Once a player is released by a Franchise, the player becomes a Free Agent and is considered the property of the RMLL. The Franchise that released the player may not protect him after the player has been removed from their RMLL Franchise Management System Roster unless the player remains on the Division Franchise XX Man Protected List.

24.5. Any registered player who plays more than ten (10) games with their Franchise and is then released cannot then register with a Franchise in a lower Division in that year.

24.5.1. Any registered Junior A player that is released from the Franchises' roster after playing more than ten (10) games with the Franchise they are registered to, will become a Junior A Free Agent and therefore will be removed from the Junior A Franchise's 50 Man Protected List.

24.5.1.1. At the discretion of the Division Commissioner, a medical exemption may be granted in the case where the release from the roster was the result of an injury. A Doctor's note must accompany the exemption request to the Division Commissioner.

24.6. A player who is listed on the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster for the current season with a Franchise and later wishes to move, in a lateral direction, within the RMLL, must be properly released from their last Franchise and have approval by the Division Commissioner before being allowed to play with the new Franchise.

24.7. In a Division without an XX Man Protected List, any player who has been listed on the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster of a Franchise in the RMLL and played for that Franchise, then goes to another league for less than two (2) years, and, upon his release, immediately returns to the RMLL remains the property of the last RMLL Franchise he played for. However, if a player sits out one season or does not report to the RMLL Franchise that drafted or held the player's playing rights in the current season after playing in the other league and then decides to play in the RMLL, is a Free Agent and can register with any Franchise.

24.8. Any player registered to a Franchise who has been turning out regularly to practice with a Franchise but who is not given a chance to play in more than one of the first six Division games for that Franchise shall have the right to appeal to the Division Commissioner to be released from that Franchise and become the property of the RMLL.

24.8.1. There is no appeal from the decision of the Division Commissioner.

24.9. Any player refused a release by the Franchise of which they are a Member, may appeal to their Division Commissioner to be granted such release. If making application under this rule, the player may not play nor be signed or traded by any Franchise in that Division if any appeals are outstanding.

24.9.1. There is no appeal from the decision of the Division Commissioner.

24.10. Where close relatives are drafted or members of different Franchises in the same Division and request a trade in order to be on the same Franchise, if the respective Franchises cannot agree on a trade, the Franchises will submit to final offer arbitration, and the Arbitrator will choose between the trades proposed from each Franchise. Where the Franchises cannot agree on an arbitrator, an arbitrator shall be appointed by the Division Commissioner.

24.10.1. There is no appeal from the Division Commissioner's appointment of an arbitrator or from the Arbitrator's decision.

24.11. If a Franchise withdraws during the scheduled playing season, the Division Commissioner shall prepare a list of player personnel available to other Franchises as a result of the withdrawal and shall circulate the list to all Franchises. No player may register with another Franchise until the list has been circulated and rights assigned by the Division. In the event of a Franchise withdrawing outside the scheduled playing season, the players of that Franchise shall become the property of the Division to be included in a dispersal draft or Free Agents as per a decision by the Division.

25. Regulation 25: Trades

25.1. Once two Franchises have negotiated a trade, both Franchises send a written acknowledgement of the trade which includes the full name of players and any terms of the trade to their respective Division Commissioner for approval.

25.2. Trade must be approved by Division Commissioner or President in the case of a perceived conflict of interest.

25.3. Draft picks cannot be traded to a Franchise not in the same draft boundary.

25.4. A traded player cannot end up back on the Franchise they were originally on in the same Season.

25.5. "Future Consideration" trades should be avoided.

25.5.1. In circumstances where terms of the trade are based on the potential of future circumstance(s) which may or may not happen, the trade may be posted as "future considerations" if the trade details are included in the trade terms approved by the Division Commissioner and are on file with the Executive Director or Vice President.

25.6. Upon approval, the Division Commissioner will forward the trade transaction to the Executive Director and the trade details for posting under Division Transactions on the RMLL website.

25.7. Trade must be kept on file by Executive Member who approved the trade and with the Executive Director. If an Executive Director perceived conflict of interest, then the Vice President will keep the trade on file.

26. Regulation 26: Player Lists

26.1. Entry Draft List – If a RMLL Division has an Entry Draft, the draft process and procedures must be documented in the RMLL Regulations as separate schedule.

26.1.1. Senior Entry Drafts are for Alberta registered Juniors who aged out of Junior in the playing Season just completed.

26.1.2. Junior Entry Drafts To assist with keeping the competitiveness of Franchises in a Division consistent, the Junior A Division and the Junior B Tier I Division along with the Junior Major Female Franchises in Calgary and the surrounding area hold annual U17 Drafts.

26.1.2.1. Graduating U17 Draft - At the end of each playing season, the ALA provides the RMLL with a list of all the U17 players graduating from the season just completed. This list is the Graduating U17 Player List. Only players on this list are eligible for the Junior A and Tier I Graduating U17 Drafts. Each of the Alberta Junior A Franchises draft ten (10) players from this list. Each of the Junior B Tier I Franchises may each draft up to twenty (20) players from this list. The Junior Major Female Franchises in Calgary and the surrounding area draft five (5) from the Fury Minor Lacrosse on this list.

26.1.3. All Entry Drafts must be completed at least five (5) days prior to the annual deadline for submitting player names to the RMLL and ALA for the LC Negotiation List.

26.1.4. The Division Commissioner must submit a list of the Draftees to the RMLL Executive Director within twenty-four (24) hours after the Entry Draft for posting on the RMLL website.

26.1.5. In a Division without an XX Man Protected List, any player in the current year's Entry Draft remains the property of the Franchise that selected the player for the current playing Season, if the drafted player is registered to a Franchise in a higher Division in the current playing Season.

- 26.1.6. A player selected at the Entry Draft and not on the Division Team XX Man Protected List, Holdout List or a registered player of the Franchise after May 1, is a Free Agent in that Division.
- 26.1.7. In a Division without an XX Man Protected List, a player selected in the current year's Entry Draft, going directly to another league, and is registered with a team, playing part of the season and is then released, must return to the RMLL Franchise that selected him in the Entry Draft.
- 26.1.8. Any drafted player who goes directly to another league and plays in that league, having never registered with a team in the RMLL, will become a Free Agent within the RMLL and can register with any RMLL Franchise if not on a Division XX Man Protected List.
- 26.1.9. Any player drafted and not registered by a RMLL Franchise or a team in another league and in his draft year, thereby sitting out his entire year, becomes a Free Agent and can register with any Franchise upon his subsequent return to the RMLL unless the player is on a Division XX Man Protected List.
- 26.1.10. Senior B - The management, process and procedures for Senior B Junior Entry Draft is documented in Schedule 7 of the RMLL Regulations.
- 26.1.11. Junior A - The management, process and procedures for Junior A Graduating U17 Entry Draft is documented in Schedule 8 of the RMLL Regulations.
- 26.1.12. Junior B Tier I The management, process and procedures for the Junior B Tier I Graduating U17 Entry Draft is documented in Schedule 9 of the RMLL Regulations.
- 26.1.13. Junior Major Female The management, process, and procedures for the Junior Major Female Graduating U17 Entry Draft for U17 players from the Fury Lacrosse is documented in Schedule 10 of the RMLL Regulations.

26.2. LC Negotiation List

- 26.2.1. Senior B, Junior A, and Junior B Tier I Franchises must submit their maximum 25 players for the LC Negotiation List to the RMLL Executive Director who will submit to ALA by the annual deadline which is prior to February 23.
- 26.2.1.1. Names must be entered using the LC Negotiation List Template. All players listed must have been a registered player with the ALA in the previous Season and the playing rights of a player listed must be currently held by the Senior B, Junior A or Junior B Tier I Franchise submitting the player.

26.3. Division Team XX Man Protected List

- 26.3.1. A RMLL Division may have a XX Man Protected List, for a Division Franchise's registered players (on the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster) and their non-registered players, who the Franchise holds a player's playing rights. If a RMLL Division has a XX Man Protected List, the management, process and procedures must be documented in a schedule of the RMLL Regulations.
- 26.3.2. Senior B - The management, process and procedures for this List are documented in Schedule 7 of the RMLL Regulations.
- 26.3.3. Junior A – The management, process and procedures for this List are documented in Schedule 8 of the RMLL Regulations.
- 26.3.4. Junior B Tier I The management, process and procedures for this List are documented in Schedule 9 of the RMLL Regulations.
- 26.3.5. Junior Major Female - The management, process and procedures for this List are documented in Schedule 10 of the RMLL Regulations.

26.4. Division Franchise Holdout List

- 26.4.1. If a RMLL Division has a Division Franchise Holdout List, the management, process, and procedures for this List must be documented in the RMLL Regulations.
- 26.4.2. If a Division has a Division Franchise Holdout List, the Division cannot also have a Division XX Man Protected List.
- 26.4.3. A player on a Division Franchise Holdout List can play in a lower Division.

26.5. Franchise Roster

- 26.5.1. This list is the players who are entered into the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster.
- 26.5.2. This list can be no more than twenty-five (25) players per franchise, except for Senior B and Junior Major Female who cannot exceed thirty (30) players, Senior C and Senior Major Female who cannot exceed forty (40) players, and Junior B Tier II who cannot exceed twenty-five (25) Tier II registered players and five (5) Tier III registered players.
- 26.5.3. Each Franchise must enter this list of players in the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster prior to:
- 26.5.3.1. By April 27 if the first scheduled Division game of their Division is May 1 or later or.
- 26.5.3.2. Four days prior to the first scheduled Division game of their Division if season play starts prior to May 1.
- 26.5.3.3. A player is not considered duly registered to a Franchise until:

26.5.3.3.1. The player has completed a RMLL Intent-to-Play and 26.5.3.3.2. the Franchise has entered all the information in the mandatory player fields for each player listed on their RMLL Franchise Management System Roster. When a player is first entered on their roster, the mandatory player fields must be entered: player first name, player last name, player DOB, player address, player city, player postal code, player province, player gender, player home phone and/or cell number, player primary e-mail address, and player jersey number.

26.5.3.4. Each Franchise must enter a player start date for each player. This is the date the player agreed to be registered to the Franchise in the current playing season.

26.5.3.5. Each Franchise must enter a photo for each player entered on their roster.

26.5.3.6. A player is not eligible to play in a Regular, Playoff, Championship, Provincial or National game until all required contact information has been entered in the RMLL Franchise Management System.

26.6. Once a list in Regulation 24.1, 24.2, 24.3, 24.4 and 24.5 is submitted, all players on it are recognized as the property of the respective Franchise and will remain so until released or traded.

26.7. Until the submission of these lists, players by virtue of being listed previously on the team RMLL Franchise Management System Roster or by virtue of a trade are protected.

26.8. After May 1, a higher-level Franchise may not approach an unprotected player from a lower Franchise to register the player to the higher-level Franchise, if the lower-level Franchise's registered players would be less fifteen players and one goalie.

26.8.1. After May 1, a higher-level Franchise should try and use call-ups as much as possible.

26.9. A player becomes a Free Agent at 12:00 am on May 1 if:

- a) The player is not listed on the Senior B Division 40 Man Protected List.
- b) The player is not listed on the Junior A Division 50 Man Protected List.
- c) The player is not listed on the Junior B Tier I Division 35 Man Protected List.

- d) The player is not listed on the Junior Major Female 35 Man Protected List.
- e) Any of Regulation 26 stated above is not applicable to the player.

27. Regulation 27: Tampering

27.1. No Franchise may contact, influence, practice or play in exhibition games, players who do not come under their jurisdiction in conformity with RMLL Regulations and Division Operating Policy.

27.2. If a Franchise wishes to make a complaint with respect to the breach of Section 27.1 above, the Franchise shall submit such complaint in writing to the Division Commissioner, with a copy to the Executive Director, which complaint shall outline the nature of the complaint and the facts surrounding same. If the Division Commissioner determines that the complaint is without merit, the Division Commissioner shall advise the Franchise making the complaint of such determination. The determination of the Division Commissioner may be appealed to the Appeals Committee.

27.2.1. If the Division Commissioner determines either: (a) they are unable to determine if the complaint may have merit; or (b) the complaint may have merit, a copy of the written complaint will be forwarded to the Discipline and Appeals Commissioner (with a copy to the Executive Director) for determination.

28. Regulation 28: Rosters

28.1. Throughout the Season it will be the respective Division Commissioner's responsibility to see that no more than twenty-five (25) players are registered at any one time on the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster for Junior A and Junior B Tier I no more than thirty (30) players for Senior B and Junior Major Female and no more than 30 players (25 Tier II players a maximum of five (5) Tier III players) on Junior B Tier II teams and 40 players for Senior C and Senior Major Female.

28.2. All players entered on the RMLL Franchise Management System Roster and all Franchises accepted into the RMLL do so on the understanding that they agree to come under the jurisdiction of the RMLL until released by the RMLL.

28.3. Unless otherwise agreed to between the player and their rostered Franchise, a player shall pay all fees of the team they are rostered to regardless of paying fees to another Franchise.

28.4. Player Signing Dates

28.4.1. Player Signing Start Date - February. 1 is the first day to sign/re-sign players who did not play outside of Alberta in the prior playing season unless a Franchise is in a Division with an XX Man Protected List. For a Franchise in a Division with an XX Man Protected List the first day to resign players and Free Agents who did not play outside of Alberta in the prior playing Season is the first date their XX Man Protected List is no longer frozen.

28.4.2. New Player Signing End Date - July 1, 11:59 pm for new players for Franchises who are still in Regular Season play. For Franchises finishing Regular Season play prior to July 1, rosters are frozen on the last day of the Division Regular Season.

28.4.3. Player Release Date – July 1, 11:59 pm for Franchises who are still in Regular Season play. For Franchises finishing Regular Season prior to July 1, rosters are frozen on the last day of the Division Regular Season.

28.4.4. Released Player Signing End Date - July 1 to 11:59 pm on July 15 for teams who are still in Regular Season. For teams finishing Regular Season prior to July 1 and before 11:59 pm on July 15, rosters are frozen on the last day of the Division Regular Season.

28.4.5. Players Released Prior to July 1 Signing End Date – 11:59 PM on July 15 for Franchises who are still in Regular Season play. For Franchises finishing Regular Season prior to July 1, rosters are frozen on the last day of the Division Regular Season.

28.4.6. For Franchise Holders with two (2) or more Franchises in the same Division, a released player from one of these Franchises cannot be signed to the other Franchise.

28.4.7. Trade Dates

28.4.7.1. February 1 through July 1st 11: 59 pm (Between July 2nd and Jan. 31st 11:59 pm, rights to a player can be traded but the player whose rights have been traded can only sign with the team his rights were traded to between Feb.1 and July 1st 11:59 pm).

28.5. Each Franchise must dress a minimum of eleven (11) players listed on their roster for a game.

28.5.1. A team may still play a game with eleven (11) or less players to the LC minimum number of six (6), however, failure to comply with Regulation 28.4. may result in a Franchise fine.

28.6. Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial Play

28.6.1. Except for the Jr. A Division, a RMLL registered player must be listed on the game sheet and participate in four (4) Regular Season games in their own Division to qualify for participation in Division Playoffs, RMLL Championships, Provincials and National Championships (Founders' and Presidents').

28.6.1.1. A player on an approved LC Transfer, transferring from the same Division in one Province to another Province, can include the games played in the province they transferred from.

28.6.1.2. At the discretion of the Division Commissioner, a medical exemption may be granted in the case of an injury which prevented the player from playing the four (4) games in their own Division. A Doctor's note must accompany the exemption request to the Division Commissioner.

28.6.1.2.1. The player for which a medical exemption is being requested must be listed on the Franchise's RMLL System Roster prior to 11:59 pm on July 1 and the Franchises' RMLL System Roster must not exceed the maximum number of allowed players.

28.6.2. It will be the respective Division Commissioner's responsibility to sign off on each Franchise roster for each Playoff series, RMLL Championship series and Provincial series.

29. Regulation 29: Inter-Division Use of Players (Call-ups)

29.1. No player registered in higher Division may be a call-up in a lower Division.

29.2. No player on an approved LC Transfer can be a call-up in their first Season, unless the Upper level of lacrosse is not available in the province they are transferring from, as per LC Operations Manual.

29.3. Except for the Junior A Division, a Franchise may call-up a maximum of four (4) players per game in Regular Season play. At the discretion of the Division Commissioner, more than four (4) call-ups can be approved for a Franchise for a specific Regular Season game.

29.3.1. For 2023 Season, the Junior A Division will be allowed unlimited call-ups per game.

29.4. All call-up players must be properly sanctioned players, including but not limited to currently not suspended in their Division, registered to an Alberta team and the Franchise has obtained/received all permissions and approvals as per RMLL Regulations.

29.4.1. For a RMLL registered player call-up, the Franchise sends an e-mail to their Division Commissioner and the lower-level Division Commissioner requesting permission to play a call-up(s) in a specific game and the Divisions are approved affiliations.

29.5. The number of games a player may play as a call-up is unlimited.

29.6. A Senior B Franchise may not scratch a healthy player in place of a call-up.

29.7. A player called up to play in a Junior A game must be included on the game day roster if the player is missing their own Franchise's scheduled game or practice.

29.8. During Regular Season, Playoffs, Provincials and RMLL Championships, a player cannot miss their rostered team practice to attend a practice of a higher-level team.

29.9. A Minor Association U17 player may play as a call-up on a Tier I, Tier II, Junior Major Female and Senior Major Female Franchise as per approved Division Affiliations and required approvals on a per game basis.

29.9.1. The RMLL Franchise coach or manager makes the request to the potential call-up players' head coach or manager. The potential call-up players' head coach or manager must receive approval from the parent of the player. These approvals must be communicated by the potential call-up players' head coach or manager to the RMLL Franchise coach or Manager copying the Minor Club President and the Minor LGB President or Executive Director. The RMLL Franchise Coach or Manager then forwards these permissions to the Division Commissioner requesting permission to play the U17 player in a specific game.

29.9.2. There is no limit to the number of games a U17 aged player may play as a call-up on a RMLL Franchise.

29.10. Playoff and Provincial Play

29.10.1. In Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial play a Franchise can only have a maximum of four (4) call-ups per game. If one or both registered goalies for a Franchise are unable to attend Playoff, RMLL

Championship and/or Provincial play, a Franchise may also call-up a goalie(s) to replace the absent goalie(s).

29.10.2. A call-up, U17 or RMLL roster player, must be listed on the game sheet and participate in four (4) Regular Season games in their own Division to qualify as a call-up in Division Playoffs, RMLL Championship and Provincials.

29.10.2.1. A Senior C call-up to Senior B, must be a current Senior C rostered player and either must have played four (4) Regular Season games as a Senior C rostered player, or if was released from a Senior B roster, must have four (4) Regular Season games between being a Senior B rostered player and a Senior C rostered player.

29.10.2.2. At the discretion of the Division Commissioner, a medical exemption may be granted in the case of an injury which prevented a registered player from playing the four (4) games in their own Division. A Doctor's note must accompany the exemption request to the Division Commissioner.

29.11. If a Franchise wishes to call-up a player while the players' Franchise remains in Playoffs, RMLL Championship and/or Provincials, the requesting Franchise must first receive consent from the player's Head Coach.

29.12. It will be the respective Division Commissioner's responsibility to sign off on all rosters for each round of Playoffs, RMLL Championship and the Provincial series.

29.13. A player can only be called up to one Franchise per Division per Playoff, Championship and Provincial series.

29.14. Violation of any of the above shall result in suspension of the player and the coach of the higher Division Franchise for whom they played.

30.2. Currently the RMLL does not have team affiliations.

30.3. Currently in the RMLL, player affiliations exist only in a Division with a Division Operating Policy Division which includes a Division Team XX Man Protected List (which includes the players registered on their RMLL Franchise Management System Roster and the playing rights of players on their list but not registered on their RMLL Franchise Management System Roster).

31. Regulation 31: Roster Exception for Junior B Tier II Teams

31.1. The Tier II Division will utilize a Tier III playing card. This is a mechanism to allow for Tier II Franchises to call-up Tier III players when their team is short players in addition to U17 players.

31.2. The purpose of a Tier III playing card is to keep players in lacrosse in areas where Tier II Franchises have a full roster of 25 players. The Tier III playing card allows these "extra" players to practice with a team and to play a few games.

31.3. Players sign a RMLL Tier III card, as opposed to a specific team card. This will allow designated Tier III carded players to be called up to all Tier II Franchises.

31.4. Tier III carded players are entitled to play for any Tier II Franchise. There are not any Franchise affiliations or territorial restrictions.

- 31.5. Any Tier III carded player is considered a Tier II Free Agent and can be added to the Tier II roster of any Tier II Franchise.
- 31.6. A Tier III carded player is eligible for RMLL Playoffs and Provincials if they have played four (4) Regular Season Tier II games.
- 31.7. A Tier III carded player can play for more than one (1) team in the Playoffs & Provincials but cannot play against a team that the player had played for in a previous round of Playoffs or Provincials. For example, in a playoff series, he cannot play for Team A in game 1 and Team B in game 2. He can play for Team A in the series, and if A is eliminated, he can play for Team B in the subsequent round.
- 31.8. The Tier II Commissioner will provide each Tier II Franchise with the list (including contact information) of all the Tier III carded players.
- 31.9. The Tier II Commissioner will approve a call-up of these Tier III carded players to a Tier II Franchise.

32. Regulation 32: Travel Permits

- 32.1. All teams who wish to participate in any type of games (exhibition, tournaments) outside of Alberta must obtain approval from their respective Division Commissioner.
- 32.2. As per ALA Regulations. All teams who are to participate in any type of games (exhibition, tournaments) outside of Alberta must complete the ALA Travel Permit and the ALA Roster forms and submit appropriate fees to the ALA. The Travel Permit Request must be filed with the ALA Office 15 days prior to the departure date complete with coaching staff, trainers and player roster.
- 32.3. A Travel Permit is not required if a team is playing a RMLL League away game with a team who resides in another Province but is a Member of the RMLL.

33. Regulation 33: Exhibition Games

33.1. An Exhibition Game is any game/scrimmage between players from two different Franchises. A scrimmage/game between players from the same Franchise is not considered an Exhibition Game.

33.2. An Exhibition Game with a non RMLL Team is not a RMLL Exhibition Game. For this type of Exhibition Game refer to ALA Regulation 5B. The Major Franchise must still however, create a Team Event and submit the game sheet to the RMLL Executive Director and Division Commissioner.

33.3. In an Alumni Exhibition Game, all players playing must be currently registered to a Franchise. As per ALA Regulation 4A.14 Alumni players may register with the ALA Office via an Excel spreadsheet for a single Exhibition Game with no applicable fee to the ALA.

33.4. All Franchises intending to initiate or take part in Exhibition Game must first secure permission from their Division Commissioner.

33.5. A six (6) day minimum notice period is required.

33.6. Upon approval from the Commissioner(s), both Franchises playing in the Exhibition Game must enter the game details: home and away teams, date, game start time and location, in their Franchise Events Tab of the RMLL Franchise Management System.

33.7. The RMLL Executive Director will forward the automatic e-mail notification of the Exhibition Game Event and the Arbiter spreadsheet to the RMLL RIC at least four (4) days prior to the game.

33.8. The current Season approved ALRA rates, assigning fee, travel rate and per diem, applies to all Referees officiating a RMLL Exhibition Game.

33.8.1.

| ALRA RMLL Exhibition Game Fee Rates | | | | |
|---|-------|-------|----------------|-------|
| Game Duration Exceeding 45 Minutes of Scheduled Playing Time | | | | |
| Level | Ref 1 | Ref 2 | Scheduling Fee | Total |
| Jr B Tier II & Jr & Sr Major Female | $73 | $73 | $6 | $152 |
| | | | | |
| Jr B Tier I & Senior C | $79 | $79 | $6 | $164 |

| | | | | |
|--|--|-------|----------------|-------|
| Junior A & Sr B | $85 | $85 | $6 | $176 |
| Game Duration Under 46 Minutes of Scheduled Playing Time | | | | |
| Level | Ref 1 | Ref 2 | Scheduling Fee | Total |
| Jr B Tier I/II, Jr/Sr Major Female, Sr B/C & Jr A | $65 | $65 | $6 | $136 |
| ALRA Exhibition Game Notes | | | | |
| Note: Where the 3-Man-Mechanic is used, the rate for Ref 3 will be the same rate as Ref 2 in each of the above scenarios. | | | | |
| For both Standard and Non-Standard Game Durations the ALRA mileage & per diem apply, if applicable. | | | | |
| When teams of differing Divisions play a Game where the duration is greater than 45 minutes, the HIGHER of the two RMLL Division Game Fee Rate will be paid. Examples: | | | | |
| | 1) A Tier I team plays a Tier II team; each official will be paid $79 per game; | | | |
| | 2) A Sr B team playing a Sr C team will have both officials paid $85 per game; | | | |
| | 3) A U17 team playing a Major team is not a RMLL game and that game must have rates set by the Minor Club per ALA/ALRA Guidelines. | | | |
| For teams from the same or different Divisions playing a game with a scheduled playing duration under 46 minutes, the game fee rate will be $65 for both officials. | | | | |
| For teams who play multiple Exhibition games in a day, with teams from differing Divisions playing in games with a scheduled playing duration greater than 45 minutes, all games will be paid at the same rate, determined by the Division of the teams that make up the majority of participating teams in the multiple Exhibition games, rounding up if there is a tie. Examples: | | | | |
| | 1) Three Tier II teams and a Tier I team participating; all officials will be paid at $73 per game; | | | |
| | 2) Two Jr A teams and two Tier I teams participating; all officials will be paid at $85 per game. | | | |
| For teams who play multiple Exhibition games in a day with teams from the same or different Divisions playing games with a scheduled playing duration under 46 minutes, all officials will be paid at $65 per game. | | | | |

33.9. The Franchise initiating the Exhibition Game is responsible for the payment of the game fees to the Referees. The Referees are to be paid prior to the start of the game.

33.9.1. The ALRA assigning fee, travel rate and per diem will be split between the teams participating in the Exhibition Game and will be invoiced to the two teams at the end of season play.

33.10. The Game Sheet for an Exhibition Game must be submitted to the RMLL Executive Director and the Division Commissioner of the Franchise initiating the Exhibition Game. If the two Franchises participating in the Exhibition Game are from two separate Divisions, then the Game Sheet must be sent to both Division Commissioners.

33.11. A player playing in an Exhibition Game must have completed the RMLL Intent-To-Play.

33.12. No player may participate in any Exhibition Game unless the player is eligible for that team, except that:

33.12.1. The player is a member of another Franchise or has obligations (by agreement or Regulation) to the Franchise for which the player was last signed, and the player has written permission from that Franchise for Exhibition Games played after May 1.

33.12.2. An out-of-Province player without a completed LC transfer must have written permission from the last team owning his playing rights.

33.12.3. No suspended player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel may play in an Exhibition Game and no suspension will be severed by having the player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel sit out an Exhibition game.

33.13. A suspension handed out in an Exhibition Game must be served in a RMLL League game.

33.14. Exhibition Game Day Rosters cannot exceed twenty-two (22) runners and three (3) goalies.

34. Regulation 34: Tournaments

34.1. As per ALA Regulation 6

34.2. The Discipline Chair is the Division Commissioner.

34.3. A Team Event is not required for a tournament.

34.4. ALA Regulation 6 does not apply to RMLL Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial Tournament Formats.

35. Regulation 35: Division Standings

35.1. Refer to the respective Division Operating Policy in the event of tie in team point standings if the Division play includes interlocking games with another Division, as the Division Operating Policy may include team final standings tie breaking rules.

35.2. Division team standings shall be determined as follows:

35.2.1. A win shall count for two points.

35.2.2. All draws or tied games, one point to each Franchise.

35.3. Balanced Schedules (play each other an equal amount of times)

35.3.1. In the event of a tie in point standings, the final standings shall be determined as follows:

35.3.2. If two Franchises are tied, the winner of game or games between the two Franchises advances. If a tie still exists, the Goal Average Formula will be used to break the tie.

35.3.3. If three or more Franchises are tied, if one Franchise has defeated the other Franchises with which it is tied, that Franchise shall advance. If this is not possible, the Franchise with the best goal average advances.

35.3.4. The goal average is calculated by dividing the total goals for, by the total goals for plus the total goals against. Only the goals for and goals against in the games between the tied Franchises are used in the goal average formula for tie breaking. The Franchise with the highest ratio (closest to one (1)) advances.

GF divided by the sum of GF + GA = Goal Average

35.3.5. If a tie still exists between Franchises the Goals Against Formula is calculated using goals for and against in all games played by the tied Franchises.

35.3.6. If a tie still exists between the Franchises, the Franchise with the lowest penalty minutes advances.

35.4. Unbalanced Schedules (do not all play each other and/or do not play each equally)

35.4.1. In the event of a tie in point standings, the final standings shall be determined as follows:

35.4.2. If two Franchises are tied and have played each equally, the winner of game or games between the two Franchises advances. If a tie still exists, the Goal Average Formula will be used to break the tie. Only the goals for and goals against in the games between the tied Franchises are used in the goal average formula for tie breaking. The Franchise with the highest ratio (closest to one (1)) advances.

35.4.3. If two Franchises are tied and have not played each other equally, then the goal average is calculated by dividing the total goals for, by the total goals for plus the total goals against for all the games played by each Franchise. The Franchise with the highest ratio (closest to one (1)) advances.

35.4.4. If three or more Franchises are tied and all have played each other equally, then if one Franchise has defeated the other Franchises with which it is tied, that Franchise shall advance. If this is not possible, the Franchise with the best goal average, using the total goals for plus the total goals against for all the games played by each Franchise. The Franchise with the highest ratio (closest to one (1)) advances.

35.4.5. The goal average is calculated by dividing the total goals for, by the total goals for plus the total goals against. The Franchise with the highest ratio (closest to one (1)) advances.

GF divided by the sum of GF + GA = Goal Average

35.4.6. If a tie still exists between Franchises the Goals Against Formula is calculated using goals for and against in all games played by the tied Franchises.

35.4.7. If a tie still exists between the Franchises, the Franchise with the lowest penalty minutes advances.

36. Regulation 36: Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial Play

36.1. All Franchises within a Division qualifying for Playoffs and/or RMLL Championships or Provincials must participate in the Division Playoff and/or RMLL Championship and/or Provincial play. Any Franchise failing to participate in the Division Playoff and/or RMLL Championship and/or Provincial play will be subject to immediate suspensions and fines.

36.2. In both Playoff, RMLL Championship and Provincial play, if at the end of regulation time, the score is tied the Referee shall order the game to continue as per LC overtime rules.

36.2.1. The Referee shall order the game to continue after a two (2) minute rest. The game continues for a full ten-minute stop time.

36.2.2. If the score is tied after the first overtime period, the game shall continue after a ten (10) minute rest. The teams will continue to play twenty (20) minute stop time periods, with a ten (10) minute rest between each period until a goal is scored (sudden victory).

36.3. Playoffs

36.3.1. Each Division will decide the number of teams to participate in their playoffs, the format, and the dates of each of the playoff games at the annual Planning Meeting for the upcoming Season.

36.3.2. If a Division selects a tournament style format for their playoffs, then in the event of a tie in round robin final point standings, the final standings shall be determined as follows:

36.3.2.1. If two Franchises are tied, the winner of game or games between the two Franchises advances. If a tie still exists, the Goal Average Formula will be used to break the tie.

36.3.2.2. If three or more Franchises are tied, if one Franchise has defeated the other Franchises with which it is tied, that Franchise shall advance. If this is not possible, the Franchise with the best Goal Average advances.

36.3.2.3. The goal average is calculated by dividing the total goals for, by the total goals for plus the total goals against. Only the goals for and goals against in the games between the tied Franchises are used in the goal average formula for tie breaking. The Franchise with the highest ratio (closest to one (1)) advances.

GF divided by the sum of GF + GA = Goal Average

36.3.2.4. If a tie still exists between Franchises the Goals Against Formula is calculated using goals for and against in all games played by the tied Franchises.

36.3.2.5. If a tie still exists between the Franchises, the Franchise with the lowest penalty minutes advances.

36.4. Provincials

36.4.1. Each Division is required to confirm their Provincial Format for the upcoming season by July 15 of the current season.

36.5. RMLL/ALA Provincial Series Round

36.5.1. Each Division will determine the dates and times for each of the games in their Provincial Series at the annual Planning Meeting for the upcoming Season.

36.6. RMLL/ALA Tournament Style Provincial Format

36.6.1. If a Division selects a tournament style format, the Division Commissioner will request hosting bid submissions from their Franchises unless the Division has a rotation for hosting.

36.6.2. In the event of a tie in Round Robin final point standings, the final standings shall be determined as follows:

36.6.3. If two Franchises are tied, the winner of game or games between the two Franchises advances. If a tie still exists, the Goal Average Formula will be used to break the tie.

36.6.4. If three or more Franchises are tied, if one Franchise has defeated the other Franchises with which it is tied, that Franchise shall advance. If this is not possible, the Franchise with the best Goal Average advances.

36.6.5. The goal average is calculated by dividing the total goals for, by the total goals for plus the total goals against. Only the goals for and goals against in the games between the tied Franchises are used in the goal average formula for tie breaking. The team with the highest ratio (closest to one (1)) advances.

$GF \text{ divided by the sum of } GF + GA = \text{Goal Average}$

36.6.5.1. If a tie still exists between Franchises the Goals Against Formula is calculated using goals for and against in all games played by the tied Franchises.

36.6.6. If a tie still exists between the Franchises, the Franchise with the lowest penalty minutes advances.

36.7. The Senior B and Alberta Junior B Tier I Champions will represent the ALA in the respective LC National Championships (Presidents' Cup and Founders' Cup). If the Alberta Champion is also the host Franchise for the LC National Championship, the Alberta Silver Medalist will also attend.

37. Regulation 37: Trophies

37.1. RMLL Championship Trophies

37.1.1. A Franchise is responsible for the care and safekeeping of any trophy won by it or any of its players. If any trophy is lost or damaged while in the care of any Franchise, or any of its players, the cost of repair or replacement will be charged to that Franchise.

37.1.2. All trophies shall be returned to the Executive Director by the Franchise responsible for the trophies at the November Planning Meeting and AGM in the current year. Such delivery in good condition shall relieve the Franchise of any further responsibility for the care and safekeeping of the trophy or trophies so delivered. Failure by any Franchise to deliver any trophy or trophies in its care at the November Planning Meeting and AGM may result in a fine.

37.2. ALA Provincial Trophies

37.2.1. As per ALA Regulation 6B.06.

37.2.2. Damaged ALA trophies will be invoiced to the Franchise.

38. Regulation 38: National Competitions

38.1. The respective Division Commissioner will request Bid submissions from their Franchises to be submitted to the respective Division Commissioner and RMLL Executive Director prior to December 1 two years prior to the competition.

38.2. The Respective Division Commissioner will submit all hosting bids to the RMLL Executive for selection and ratification by December 15 two years prior to the competition.

38.3. As per ALA Regulation 7B.01: Bids for Major Box Nationals.

In Major Box, the bids for hosting a LC Major Lacrosse National Championship shall be submitted to the RMLL Executive Director and one shall be chosen by the RMLL Board of Directors. The RMLL's choice of the successful bid shall be forwarded to the Director of High Performance via the ALA Office together with all bid materials for ratification no later than January 15 of the year prior to the competition. The Director of High Performance will forward to ALA Board of Directors for ratification.

38.4. Where a Franchise attending a National Championship is permitted to add players from the same Division, the attending Franchise is required to notify the player's head coach or manager of the request prior to asking the player but does not require that Franchise's consent. A player cannot be approached or asked to attend prior to that player's Franchise being eliminated from the playoffs.

39. Regulation 39: Suspensions and Fines

39.1. Suspensions and or fines are assessed to a Franchise for violations of RMLL Bylaws and Regulations and for infractions committed during a lacrosse game. Regulations 40 and 41 contain the offence and the suggested suspension and or fine. Pending their investigation, the Division Commissioner has the authority to decrease the suggested suspension and or fine or increase the suggested suspension to a maximum of five (5) games and or increase the fine to a maximum of five hundred dollars ($500.00).

39.1.1. Where a game infraction occurs that is subject to a suspension and/or fine, the Division Commissioner shall forward the referee report, if one is provided, together with the Commissioner's initial position on penalty, to the affected Franchise and invite the Franchise to provide a submission or comment. If the Commissioner applies the suggested suspension and/or fine, then the Commissioner will send the standard letter to the Franchise. If the Commissioner decides to increase or decrease the suggested suspension and/or fine, then the reason or reasons must be communicated in the letter.

39.1.2. In the case of a Referee Game Report regarding a game infraction, the ALRA President must be copied on the letter.

39.1.3. There is no appeal from a suspension and/or fine stated in Regulations 40 and 41.

39.2. In no case may a Division Commissioner levy a suspension for more than five games; but may recommend in writing to the Discipline and Appeals Commissioner a further suspension and/or fine.

39.3. In the event a Division Commissioner asks for a levy of more than five games, there must be a hearing, and the Division Commissioner and defendant should be present at the hearing.

39.4. Players', managers', coaches', and trainers' rights to participate may be suspended by the President of the RMLL for any period, which the RMLL President may deem appropriate.

39.5. In the event of a hearing at which any person is likely to receive a suspension of more than five games, the respective individuals will be notified in advance of the meeting, so that they and/or one delegated person may be present and be allowed to speak on their behalf.

39.6. Franchises or Members of Franchises will be suspended immediately for making any physical contact with a Referee or game official in any manner. All Officials must report such attack on their persons in full detail within twenty-four (24) hours following the incident to the Division Commissioner and RMLL President. Any person suspended under this Regulation shall be ordered to appear before the RMLL Discipline and Appeal Commissioner.

39.7. All Referees must report in full detail of any member of a Franchise who makes physical contact or who verbally abuses a Referee or game official in any manner at any time. This report will be sent to the President of the RMLL within twenty-four (24) hours following the incident. The Member of the Franchise will be subject to discipline as per the operating regulations of the RMLL.

39.8. In any case where a person is suspended and ordered to appear at a Hearing, the time that has elapsed between the date of such suspension and the date of the Hearing, may be credited to any further suspension if the Hearing Committee desires, providing the suspended person or his representative appears at the Hearing.

- 39.9. In the event of a hearing, the defendant and witnesses may be present in person or by telephone.
- 39.10. Players, coaches, managers, or Franchise Members who incur a match penalty and/or, gross misconduct during a game and/or a match penalty, gross penalty and/or a game misconduct after completion of the scheduled playing time, are suspended until their situation is dealt with by the appropriate Division Commissioner. Suspended persons will be notified about the conditions of their suspension and/or fines by their respective Division Commissioner. Suspended players may not participate in any league, tournament or exhibition games while suspended and only played league games count against the imposed suspension.
- 39.11. No suspension handed out in a RMLL game will be served by having the player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel sit out exhibition or tournament games. Suspensions handed out at National Championships or non RMLL game will be served as per the Governing Body rules for which the event falls under.
- 39.12. See RMLL Bylaws for the jurisdiction of Discipline Committee and Appeals Committee.

40. Regulation 40: Player Suspensions and Fines

- 40.1. Any player with outstanding fees owing to the Franchise whose roster they were on in the previous season will be considered to be in “bad standing” and will be suspended from all play in the current season until the outstanding fees are paid in full to the Franchise owed. Once the RMLL Executive Director receives notification from the Franchise that the player has paid outstanding fees, the player will again be deemed to be “in good standing”.
- 40.1.1. A player will be considered in “bad standing” when the amount has been outstanding for a least ninety days and the Franchise provides documentation of multiple attempts to collect.
- 40.1.2. The player will be sent a final notice from the Franchise owed the funds with a copy to the RMLL Executive Director. The player will be given seven (7) business days to remit the outstanding amount to the Franchise. If payment has not been received by the eighth (8th) business day, the player will be added to the Player in Bad Standing List, maintained by the Executive Director.

- 40.1.3. A Franchise may not put a player in bad standing after January 31 of the upcoming Season.

- 40.2. Players who do sign or play in another league or association without being properly released may be suspended for the balance of that season and for the entire season following.

- 40.3. Any player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel receiving a match penalty will be assessed a minimum three (3) game suspension and a one-hundred-dollar ($100.00) fine, unless the player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel is registered to a team in a league with 12 or less Regular Season games and then the player will be assessed a minimum two (2) game suspension and a one hundred dollar ($100.00) fine.

- 40.4. Any player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel receiving a match penalty for Abuse of an Official will be assessed a minimum three (3) game suspension, a one hundred dollar ($100.00) fine and will be referred to the Discipline and Appeals Commissioner. As per 41.16, the Franchise of the player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel will also receive a fine.

- 40.5. Any player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel receiving a game misconduct for Abuse of an Official will be assessed a minimal additional one (1) game suspension.

- 40.6. Any player, goalkeeper or non-playing personnel receiving a gross misconduct penalty will be assessed a fifty-dollar ($50) fine and a minimum two (2) game suspension.

- 40.7. Any player/goalkeeper who receives a game misconduct penalty for fighting off the playing surface will be assessed a fifty-dollar ($50) fine and a minimum three (3) game suspension.

- 40.8. Any player/goalkeeper who receives a game misconduct penalty for leaving the players/penalty bench during an altercation will be assessed a minimum two (2) game suspension.

- 40.9. Any player/goalkeeper who receives a game misconduct penalty for being the first to intervene in an altercation (third man in) will be assessed a minimum one (1) game suspension.

- 40.10. Any payer/goalkeeper who receives a game misconduct penalty for LC Rule 45 e for players failing to proceed to their bench (or goalie crease if the fight occurs near the bench) will be assessed a minimum one (1) game suspension.
- 40.11. Any player/goalkeeper or non-playing personnel who receives a game misconduct penalty with 0:00 seconds left in the game will be assessed a minimum one (1) game suspension.
- 40.12. Any non-playing personnel penalized for entering the playing surface without the permission of the Referee will be assessed a fifty-dollar ($50) fine and a minimum two (2) game suspension.
- 40.13. Any player/goalkeeper or non-playing personnel receiving five (5) game misconduct penalties in one (1) season will be assessed a two (2) game suspension on the fifth offence and may be referred to the Discipline and Appeals Commissioner.
- 40.13.1. Game misconducts for penalties already receiving a game misconduct will not be considered in this total. For example, if a player receives a five-minute major and a game misconduct for fighting and a five-minute major and a game misconduct for instigating, the LC rule book requires a third game misconduct for getting two majors in the same game. However, since the player had already received a game misconduct for fighting and a game misconduct for instigating the third game misconduct that they received will not be counted as per Regulation 40.13.
- 40.14. Any player/goalkeeper who receives an aggressor or instigator penalty in their last RMLL game of their Season will be suspended for the first two games in the upcoming Season.
- 40.15. Any player/goalkeeper who receives one hundred (100) cumulative penalty minutes in one (1) Regular Season will receive a two (2) game suspension.
- 40.16. Any player/goalkeeper who receives one hundred and fifty (150) cumulative penalty minutes in one Regular Season will receive a three (3) game suspension and will be sent to Discipline.
- 40.17. Any Jr. B Tier II player/goalkeeper who receives sixty (60) minutes in Playoff play will receive a one (1) game suspension.

40.18. Any Jr. B Tier II player/goalkeeper who receives eighty (80) minutes in Playoff play will receive a two (2) game suspension.

40.19. Any Jr. B Tier II player/goalkeeper who receives a hundred (100) minutes in Playoff play will receive a three (3) game suspension.

40.20. Any Jr. B Tier II player/goalkeeper who receives a game misconduct in the last Provincial game will receive a one (1) game suspension.

40.21. Any Jr. B Tier II player/goalkeeper who receives a game misconduct in the last ten (10) minutes of the game shall receive a one (1) game suspension.

42. Regulation 42: Game Protest

42.1. A Regular Season, Playoff, RMLL Championship or Provincial game protest must be submitted, in writing, to the Executive Director and Division Commissioner, within twenty four hours (24) hours, in the case of a Regular Season game, within six (6) hours, in the case of Playoff, RMLL Championship or Provincial series game and two (2) hours in the case of a Round Robin Playoff or Provincial game, of the incident and must include two hundred dollars ($200.00) fee. If a Franchise wins its protest, the submitted fee will be returned.

42.2. The written protest shall set out the applicable Bylaw(s) and/or Regulation(s) and the details regarding each instance where the Bylaw(s) and/or Regulation(s) were not followed and any consequence(s) which may have occurred as a result of the Bylaw(s) and/or Regulation(s) not being adhered to.

42.3. The Division Commissioner and two Members of the RMLL Executive will rule on the protest.

42.4. The protest decision notification will be within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt of a protest in the case of a Regular Season game and, in the case of a Playoff, RMLL Championship or Provincial game, within twelve (12) hours.

42.5. There is no appeal from the protest decision.

42.5.1. In the case of a Protest resulting in a game forfeit, the non-forfeiting Franchise shall be awarded two (2) points in Division, Playoff, RMLL Championship or Provincial standings and all player statistics will still be recorded.

43. Regulation 43: Discipline Hearing Process

43.1. Any complaint or referral to the Discipline/Appeals Committee permitted by Bylaw 11.05 must be submitted in writing to the Executive Director within five (5) days of the occurrence of the action which is the subject of the complaint or referral. The Executive Director shall as soon as practicable and in any event within three (3) days of receipt of the complaint or referral forward same in writing to the Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals.

- 43.2. Upon receipt from the Executive Director of a written complaint or referral referred to above, the Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals shall appoint a panel of three (3) members from the roster of the approved Discipline/Appeals Committee to preside at a hearing, including the naming of a Chair of such panel. The Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals may be included in any such panel. Subject to Section 42.3 below, upon the formation of the panel, the Chair of the panel shall as soon as practicable appoint a date, time and place for a hearing (which may be held by telephone conference call) to be held as soon as practicable, and in any event within ten (10) days of the formation of the panel. The Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals may, in his or her discretion, with the prior written agreement of the President extend the time periods set forth above if required by the circumstances surrounding the complaint or referral.
- 43.3. The Franchise Holder, Member, Member of a Member or RML Executive Member who made the complaint or referral and the Franchise Holder, the Member, the Member of a Member or RMLL Executive Member against whom the complaint or referral has been made shall be given reasonable notice of the hearing and are entitled to attend and/or participate in the hearing at their own expense. Such reasonable notice must include the particulars of the written complaint or referral.
- 43.4. Upon receipt of the notice set forth in Section 42.3 above, the Chair of the panel shall forward to the party against whom the complaint has been made all materials provided to the panel in connection with the complaint or referral and such party shall have not less than three (3) days to file with Executive Director and the Chair of the panel any written materials it wishes to file in response. The Chair of the panel will as soon as practical and in any case within two (2) days provide such response materials to the party making the complaint or referral and the other members of the panel. The Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals may, in his or her discretion, with the prior written agreement of the President extend the time periods set forth above if required by the circumstances surrounding the written complaint or referral.
- 43.5. The panel may call witnesses and request any relevant information from either the party who filed the written complaint or referral or the party against whom the complaint or referral has been filed.
- 43.6. The parties to the proceeding have the right to receive all written material presented to the panel, hear all witnesses who attend the hearing and be informed of all relevant information of which the panel is aware. The parties have the right to have representatives present, to present evidence, to be heard, and to cross-examine witnesses called by the panel or by other parties. In the case of written material or information received other than by way of the witness being present at the hearing, either personally or by telephone, any party may apply to the panel to have the opportunity to cross-examine the witness either at the hearing or by telephone.

43.7. Upon the completion of the hearing the panel may:

- a) dismiss all or any portion of the complaint or referral.
- b) fine, suspend, expel and/or impose probation with terms upon the party against whom the complaint or referral was made.
- c) impose such other further or order upon the party against whom the complaint or referral was made, as may be reasonable in light of the circumstances surrounding such complaint or referral, including by way of example but not limitation, the issuance of an apology and undertaking to cease such conduct in the future; or
- d) if in the opinion of the panel the complaint or referral was found to be unreasonable or in bad faith to impose such order upon the party making the complaint or referral was made, as may be reasonable in light of the circumstances surrounding such complaint or referral, including by way of example but not limitation, the issuance of an apology and undertaking to cease such conduct in the future.

43.8. The decision of the panel shall be communicated as soon as practicable and in any case not later than three (3) days of the completion of the hearing and written reasons shall be provided within ten (10) days of the completion of the hearing process with copies to be provided to the Executive Director, the party having made the complaint or referral and the party against whom the complaint or referral was made. The hearing process shall be deemed to ongoing until the panel has discontinued viewing evidence, interviewing witnesses and deliberating.

43.9. In cases of automatic referrals under Section 11.05(c) of the Bylaws or in any event with the written consent of each of the party making the complaint and referral and the party against whom the complaint or referral was made, the panel upon a unanimous vote may direct that there be no hearing. In such case, the matter shall be decided solely on written information provided to the panel by each of the party making the complaint and referral and the party against whom the complaint or referral was made.

43.10. Any further disciplinary action arising out of an automatic referral shall be forthwith communicated by the Executive Director to the President of the disciplined person's Member or in the case of the President of the Member being the person disciplined, to the Member's Vice President who shall be responsible for forthwith advising the person being disciplined.

43.11. In the case of an automatic referral, the person subject to the automatic suspension may be further disciplined, including suspension, notwithstanding the expiration of the automatic suspension.

43.12. Any permitted ALA appeal must be made in accordance to their Bylaws, Regulations, and Policies.

44. Regulation 44: Appeal Process

44.1. NOTICE OF APPEAL

44.1.1. All Appeals pursuant to Section 11.06 of the By-Laws shall be in writing ("Notice of Appeal") addressed to the Executive Director at the RMLL office and filed by the party making such appeal (the "Appellant") within seven (7) days of the date of the decision being appealed. The Notice of Appeal may be filed in writing by ordinary mail, courier, electronic format, excluding SMS and text messaging, or facsimile.

44.2. CONTENTS OF NOTICE OF APPEAL

44.2.1. The Notice of Appeal shall contain the following:

- a) statement of the decision, which is being appealed, including a copy of the written decision, if any;
- b) concise statements of the grounds for appeal in numbered paragraphs.
- c) concise statements of the facts, in numbered paragraphs, alleged by the Appellant.
- d) a summary of the evidence which the Appellant intends to produce at the Appeal Hearing, whether by document or viva voce (with the living voice) evidence.

44.3. APPEAL FEES

44.3.1. Appellants shall be required to pay an appeal fee of Three Hundred ($300.00) Dollars for an Appeal, which fee shall be payable with the filing of the Notice of Appeal. The Appeal Fee is refundable in the event the Appeal panel determines the Appeal was successful.

44.4. APPEAL HEARING PROCESS AND POWERS

- 44.4.1. The Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals has the discretion, after giving the Appellant an opportunity to make submissions to be heard, to rule that some or all of an Appeal is without merit and that it be dismissed without a hearing.
- 44.4.2. Upon receipt from the Executive Director of a Notice of Appeal, the Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals shall appoint a panel of three (3) members from the roster of the approved Discipline/Appeals Committee to preside at a hearing, including the naming of a Chair of such panel. The Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals may be included in any such panel. Upon the formation of the panel, the Chair of the panel shall as soon as practicable appoint a date, time and place for a hearing (which may be held by telephone conference call) to be held as soon as practicable, and in any event within ten (10) days of the formation of the panel. The Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals may, in his or her discretion, with the prior written agreement of the President extend the time periods set forth above if required by the circumstances surrounding the Appeal.
- 44.4.3. The Appellant, the authority whose decision is being appealed (the “Respondent”) and any other party the panel determines has an interest in the appeal (an “Interested Party”) shall be given reasonable notice of the hearing and are entitled to attend and/or participate in the hearing at their own expense. Such reasonable notice must include the particulars of the written complaint or referral.
- 44.4.4. Upon receipt of the Notice of Appeal, the Chair of the panel shall forward to the Respondent and all Interested Parties all materials provided to the panel in connection with the Appeal and the Respondent and such Interested Parties shall have not less than three (3) days to file with Executive Director and the Chair of the panel any written materials they wish to file in response to the Notice of Appeal. The Chair of the panel will as soon as practical and in any case within two (2) days provide such response materials to the Appellant, the other members of the panel and all other parties. The Commissioner of Discipline and Appeals may, in his or her discretion, with the prior written agreement of the President extend the time periods set forth above if required by the circumstances surrounding the Appeal.
- 44.4.5. The panel may call witnesses and request any relevant information from either the Appellant or any other interested party.
- 44.4.6. The Appellant, the Respondent and all Interested Parties have the right to receive all written material presented to the panel, hear all witnesses who attend the hearing and be informed of all relevant information of which the panel is aware. The parties have the right to have representatives present, to present evidence, to be heard, and to cross-examine witnesses called by the panel or by other parties. In the case of written material or information received other than by way of the witness being present at the hearing, either personally or by telephone, any party may apply to the panel to have the opportunity to cross-examine the witness either at the hearing or by telephone.

44.4.7. The panel appointed to hear the appeal will advise of the procedure to be followed at the appeal hearing. It is solely within the discretion of that panel to allow the hearing of witnesses or further evidence at the appeal hearing. It is solely within the discretion of that panel to consider only the evidence or record that was in front of the person or persons appealed from.

44.4.8. The panel may:

- a) dismiss or allow all or any portion of the Appeal and quash all or any portion the decision appealed from and impose in its place any decision that the authority appealed from could have imposed; and
- b) award costs to the Appellant or Respondent, if the committee is of the opinion that the conduct of either party was unreasonable or in bad faith, but no award of costs shall be made without first permitting the parties to be heard on the other issue of costs.

45. Regulation 45: Expenses

45.1. Meetings and Expenses

An Expense Claim must be submitted within seven (7) days of occurrence. Mileage will be submitted only through the ALRA aggregate invoices to the RMLL.

46. Regulation 46: Social Media

46.1. The RMLL recognizes the vital importance of participating in online conversations and are committed to ensuring that we participate in online social media the right way. The ALA Social Media Guidelines has been developed to help empower members to participate in this connected world and represent our League by sharing the vision and mission of our organization and the story of our historic game. Our League encourages all our Franchises, Players, Coaches, Trainers, other Franchise Personnel, volunteers, parents and/or guardians of RMLL players to explore and engage in social media communities at a level at which they feel comfortable. Approach online communication in the same way one does in person -- by using sound judgment and common sense, by adhering to the League's values, and by ensuring that all the RMLL, ALA and CLA Bylaws and Regulations are not breached. Social media enables people and organizations to share opinions, insights and experiences on the web using tools to connect, interact and maintain and develop relationships. Social media should be used for connecting and engaging with members, fans, followers, and supporters.

46.2. The RMLL expects that all members are aware of and respect the ALA Social Media Policy.

46.3. If anyone is found to be in violation of the guidelines to the extent that it is damaging to the RMLL, it will be handled using ALA Bylaw 10. Non-compliance with this policy may be considered as misconduct, harassment, discrimination, or in certain circumstances contravention of the law. Those who fail to comply with the guidelines may be disciplined.

47. Regulation 47: Privacy of Personal Information

47.1. Personal information will be collected to determine eligibility for competitive and recreational opportunities, age related events, to facilitate enrolment, to disseminate information, to communicate, to administer and evaluate programs and promotions that benefits Members, and for insurance and statistical purposes. In addition, personal information may be, from time to time, submitted to major funding bodies in order to verify registration and meeting funding requirements.

47.2. All information must be collected with the consent of the person or legal guardian.

47.3. Personal information collection must be limited to what is absolutely necessary.

47.4. All efforts must be made to avoid incorrect information, and efforts must be made to verify accuracy, completeness, and timeliness of information.

47.5. Reasonable steps will be taken to protect the privacy of all personal information.

47.6. The President of the RMLL will be the Privacy Officer for the RMLL.

47.7. Any member wanting access to their personal information can contact the Privacy Officer at PO Box 47083 Creekside, Calgary, Alberta, T3P 0B9 or e-mail the RMLL President as listed under the Executive on the RMLL website www.rockymountainlax.com

48. Regulation 48: Electronic Voting

At the discretion of the President, an electronic vote may be held between meetings of the RMLL Executive, on any action properly brought before the RMLL Executive. Such electronic vote shall be conducted as follows:

(a) the President will prepare, or cause to be prepared, an e-mail to be circulated to the RMLL Executive which sets forth the motion to be voted upon together with all appropriate supporting documentation. If the motion has been moved and seconded by members of the RMLL Executive the e-mail will so indicate.

(b) If the motion has not been previously moved and seconded the email will request that members of the RMLL Executive provide to the Executive Director an email indicating they are prepared to move and second the motion.

(c) If required pursuant to paragraph (b) above, upon receipt of emails moving and seconding the motion, the RMLL Executive Director shall circulate an email to the RMLL Executive advising that the motion has been duly moved and seconded and is in order.

(d) Upon the motion being moved and seconded, in accordance with either (a) or (b) above, the RMLL Executive shall have two (2) days to raise any questions, comments or concerns regarding the motion. Such questions, comments or concerns shall be raised by way of an email addressed to all members of the RMLL Executive.

(e) If there are no questions, concerns or comments raised in opposition to the motion the Executive Director shall circulate an email to all members of the RMLL Executive asking them to vote on the motion and each member of the RMLL Executive shall have 24 hours from the time of the sending of such email by the Executive Director to vote on the motion by sending a return email to the Executive Director indicating whether they vote "Yes" or "No" on the motion.

(f) If there are any questions, concerns or comments raised in opposition to the motion within the time specified in paragraph (d) above, the President, RMLL Executive Director and/or the mover and seconder of the motion, as may be appropriate, shall have two (2) days to respond to same by email addressed to each member of the RMLL Executive.

(g) Any suggested amendments to the motion may be incorporated in the motion at the discretion of the President.

(h) Upon the expiry of the two (2) day period set forth in paragraph (e) above, the Executive Director shall circulate an email to all members of the RMLL Executive asking them to vote on the motion (as may be amended by the President in accordance with paragraph (f) above) and each member of the RMLL Executive shall have 24 hours from the time of the sending of such email by the Executive Director to vote on the motion by sending a return email to the Executive Director indicating whether they vote “Yes” or “No” on the motion.

(i) Only e-mail votes received from the e-mail address of a member of the RMLL Executive which is on file with the Executive Director will be accepted. Otherwise, a faxed vote must be sent.

(j) A non-response to a motion duly circulated shall be deemed to be a vote in favor of the motion.

(k) Notwithstanding the foregoing, In the event that it is determined by the President, in their discretion, that matter which is the subject of the electronic vote requires more discussion by the RMLL Executive than can be reasonably facilitated through the exchange of emails, the President may circulate an e-mail to all members of the RMLL Executive suspending the electronic voting process and advising the members of the RMLL Executive that such motion shall be dealt with at the next meeting of the RMLL Executive.

Schedule 7 – Senior B Drafts and Protected Lists

1. Senior B Graduating Junior Draft

1.1 Any Player Drafts, either Expansion, Entry or Dispersal, are to be conducted in accordance with eligibility lists, rules and procedures put forward and overseen by the Commissioner. Any such lists, rules or procedures must be approved by a two thirds majority of the members in good standing, prior to conducting the Draft.

1.2 For the purpose of Drafts of graduating juniors in Alberta, the playing rights of all eligible players who reside north of the southern corporate boundary of Leduc, Alberta, will be deemed proprietary to the Beaumont Outlaws, Edmonton Warriors and Edmonton Miners Senior “B” Lacrosse clubs. The playing rights of all eligible players who reside south of the northern corporate boundary of Didsbury, Alberta, will be deemed proprietary to the Rockyview Knights, and Calgary Senior Mountaineers. The playing rights of players residing between those boundaries, including the city of Red Deer will be deemed proprietary of the Central Alberta Senior “B” Lacrosse club, should such a team be established.

1.3 Once drafted, a player is property of that team until he is either released or traded. If a drafted player, decides to play in a higher league (i.e., the Western Lacrosse Association or the Ontario Lacrosse Association’s Major Series) his RMLL rights remain with the team that drafted him so long as he is on its PL, unless traded.

1.4 The day immediately following the Draft, the Senior B Commissioner must e-mail the list of Draftees, (Franchise pick, player name and Minor Club from) to the RMLL Executive Director.

1.5 Players that are acquired from another team by means of an expansion draft are protected by the expansion team for a period of one (1) year, Players on the expansion team that were restricted free agents are protected until such time as they are released or traded.

2. Expansion Draft

2.1 In order that expansion in the Senior “B” Division can take place most effectively, the following list of requirements must be met. Any expansion bid that does not contain the following information will be automatically rejected.

- a) Executive: A list (names, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, and lacrosse background) of sufficient executives to cover all facets of a team’s operations.
- b) Financial Stability: Evidence of financing to support at least one (1) full year of operation within the Senior “B” Division. In addition to submitting the RMLL bond, there should be a detailed budget containing revenue and expenses.

- c) Exposure: Proof that entry into the Senior “B” Division will not impose an unwarranted financial or competitive burden on established teams.
- d) Local Support: Evidence of local support from the city/community. In addition, there should be evidence of support from the local lacrosse community (established associations, leagues, teams).
- e) Facility: Guarantee that a facility comparable to the facilities used by the other teams in the Senior “B” Division is available with suitable dates and times.
- f) Players: A list of twenty (20) players of adequate caliber. These players cannot be on the protected list of any Senior team. In addition, these players cannot have played in junior lacrosse in the previous season. This list must include names, addresses, telephone numbers, email addresses, and lacrosse experience. Finally, each player listed must sign or email intent to play.
- g) Future Players: Applicant must provide evidence of where future players will come from. This is basic demographic information compiled from the RMLL junior divisions and Senior “C” Division (if applicable).
- h) Graduating Junior Draft: In regions of the province where there is graduating junior draft, the expansion team will have the first selection.

3. Senior B 40 Man Protected List

3.1 All teams will manage a Protected List (“PL”) of the players to which they hold the absolute playing rights. Players remain on the member’s PL until they are released or traded.

3.2 From 00:00:01 of February 1st of each year until 24:00:00 of April 15th a member will be allowed to hold the playing rights of 50 players, provided that the Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director are notified of the names.

3.3 From 00:00:01 of April 16th of each year until 00:00:01 of February 1st of the following year, each member will be allowed to hold the playing rights of forty (40) players, provided that the Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director are notified of the names any subsequent changes by April 15th at 11:59:59 pm. Failure to comply with this may result in a fine by the Commissioner.

3.4 There will be no Hold-out List. There will be no Injured Reserve List. The Senior “B” Division 40 Man Protected List includes the players registered on the RMLL Team Management System Roster (maximum 30) plus the playing rights of additional players where the combined total cannot exceed forty (40), excepting for the designated fifty (50) player time period as noted in 4.3. The 40 Man Protected List is NOT a 40 Man Roster.

3.5 At no time during the fifty (50) player time period may a PL exceed the specified number of players, including during the graduating junior draft (“draft”) itself.

3.6 At no time during the forty (40) player time period may a PL exceed the specified number of players.

3.7 Each team must submit their releases for the pre-draft PL five (5) days prior to the draft to the Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director. Each team may only draft up to the fifty (50) man limit (i.e. there must be room on a team's PL for any drafted players they plan on adding). Existing players may be released during the draft to make room for a draft pick.

3.8 Each 40 Man PL will be frozen from July 1st of each year, until February 1st of the following year. During the frozen period, players can be released from one team's PL but not added to another team's PL.

3.9 No player may be added to a PL at any time without the written permission of the player, communicated to the Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director.

3.10 A player becomes a free agent at 12:00 am on May 1st if the player is not listed on the Senior "B" Division 40 Man PL. Any player who is no longer protected will be put on a separate list and submitted to the Commissioner who will then distribute it to all Members and the Commissioner will also send it to the Executive Director for the purpose of submitting it to the Sr C Commissioner.

3.11 The PL and all changes throughout the season will be posted to the RMLL public website.

3.12 The Commissioner and all team General Managers will maintain the PL. It must be kept current. The RMLL Executive Director will maintain the Senior B Division forty (40) Man Protected List on the RMLL website. In case of a discrepancy, the Protected Listed posted on the RMLL website will be the official copy.

3.13 Players are released by the members' General Managers by notifying the Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director.

3.14 By April 15 of each year, the Franchise must e-mail the Senior B Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director, their player releases to return their Protected List to no more than forty (40) players.

Schedule 8 – Junior A Drafts and Protected Lists

1. Junior A Graduating U17 Draft

1.1 The graduating U17 Draft must be held each year before the Junior B Tier I Graduating U17 draft and prior to the LC deadline for provision of the 25 Man Negotiation List. This will be on or before February 7 of each year at a specific time to be agreed between the teams and the commissioner. Five days prior to the draft each Team will submit to the Junior A Commissioner and RMLL Executive Director the names of those players being released from that team's July 1 previous year Protected List.

1.2 There will be a 10 round open draft. [passed and amended at December 17, 2011 meeting] Once the 10 rounds have been completed, and the drafted players are added to that team's remaining protected players from the previous year's Protected List, that team may then sign as free agents the number of junior aged players and/or un-drafted graduating U17 players to the maximum of the 60 player protected list.

(a) Any player added to the protected list (outside of being drafted or traded) must give consent through an email.

1.3 The order of drafting will be determined by the previous season's standings. The team that finished lower in the standings as between the two South teams picks first in the graduating U17 draft. Picks will alternate accordingly throughout.

(a) There will be a North draft for Edmonton, a South draft for the two Calgary teams, and a Saskatchewan draft for Saskatchewan.

1.4 The playing rights of all eligible players who reside north of Lacombe, Alberta, will be deemed to be the property of the Edmonton team. The playing rights of all eligible players who reside south of and including Red Deer, Alberta, will be deemed to be the property of the Calgary teams. An unprotected player can elect to play for any Junior A team in the league.

1.5 The playing rights of all eligible players in the province of Saskatchewan will be deemed to be the property of the Saskatchewan team.

1.6 The day immediately following the Draft, the Junior A Commissioner must e-mail the list of Draftees, (Franchise pick, player name and Minor Club from) to the RMLL Executive Director.

1.7 If a club or team withdraws during the scheduled playing season, the Commissioner shall prepare a list of player personnel available to other clubs as a result of the withdrawal and shall circulate the list to all member clubs. No player may sign with another club or team until the list has been circulated and players' rights have been assigned by the Division, in a manner agreed to and approved by the Executive Council and Commissioner. In the event of a team withdrawing outside the scheduled playing season, the players of that team shall become the property of the Division to be included in a dispersal draft as set up by the Division.

2. Junior A 50 Man Protected List

2.1 Each team will have a 50-Player Protected list.

2.2 The fifty (50) Man Protected List is not a fifty (50) Man Roster. A Franchise registered roster cannot exceed twenty-five (25) players.

2.3 There will be no hold out list.

2.4 There will be no injury list.

2.5 The playing rights of a player drafted by a Junior "A" team and placed on that team's 60 player protected list shall remain the property of that team for the full five years of that player's junior eligibility, as long as the player remains on that team's 50 player protected list.

2.6 The 50 player-protected list will be frozen from July 1 in each year until the draft. During the frozen period, players can be dropped but not added to a team's Protected List. The protected list will be expanded to 60 players from the date of the Graduating U17 draft every year until the second Sunday in April, when it will then return to 50 players.

2.7 The 50 player protected lists shall be published to all other Junior A teams. There shall be transparency of player movement. To be recognized, all additions to and deletions from the 50 player-protected list shall be communicated forthwith to the Junior A Commissioner & Executive Director of the RMLL and to the other Junior A teams concurrently. This communication will be presumed to be by e-mail. Prior to the U17 draft each year, each team will provide to the commissioner and to the other teams a list of e-mail addresses for designated team representatives for that season. These e-mail addresses will be used to notify the other teams and announce player movements. Notification to these e-mail addresses will be presumed to constitute sufficient notice of player moves to the respective teams.

2.8 On the second Sunday of April each year, the Franchise must e-mail the Junior A Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director, their player releases to return their Protected List to no more than fifty (50) players.

Schedule 9 – Junior B Tier I Drafts and Protected List

1.5.1 The host Franchise for the draft will alternate between the Calgary Shamrocks, Calgary Chill, Calgary Mountaineers, Okotoks Marauders, and Rockyview Silvertips.

1.5.2 The host Franchise will be responsible for arranging a suitable venue for holding the draft and for informing the Junior B Tier I Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director of the format, time and location of the draft.

1.5.3 There will be a twenty (20) round draft of Alberta Graduating U17 players.

1.5.4 The order of drafting will be determined by the previous Regular Season standings and by the trade transactions where trades included draft picks. Pending trade transactions of draft picks, the Franchise that finished lowest in the standings between the five Franchises will have the first pick unless a new Franchise enters the Division and then the new Franchise will have the first overall pick.

1.5.5 Rounds 1 through 20 – The Rockyview Silvertips, Calgary Chill, Calgary Shamrocks, Calgary Mountaineers and Okotoks Marauders will draft Alberta Graduating U17 players on the Graduating U17 List from Rockyview Rage, High River Heat, Okotoks Raiders, Strathmore Venom, Calgary Hornets, Calgary Knights, Calgary Axemen, and Calgary Sabrecats Minor Lacrosse Clubs.

1.6. Draft 4 – Lethbridge Barracudas

1.6.1 The Barracudas will select a draft date prior to February 12 and after the Junior A Division Draft each year.

1.6.2 The Barracudas will be responsible for arranging a suitable venue for holding the draft and informing the Junior B Tier I Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director of the format, time and location of the draft.

1.6.3 There will be a twenty (20) round draft of Alberta Graduating U17 players.

1.6.4 Rounds 1 through 20 – The Barracudas will draft up to twenty (20) Alberta Graduating U17 players on the Graduating U17 List from Brooks, Crowsnest, Claresholm, Lethbridge, Taber and Medicine Hat Minor Lacrosse Associations.

1.7 Drafted players will be added to the Franchise's Thirty-Five (35) Man Protected List which cannot exceed forty-five (45) players from the draft date to April 11 when the Protected List returns to thirty-five (35) each year.

1.8 Once drafted, a player is notified by the Franchise who drafted them. Players drafted to a Franchise must report to the Franchise who drafted them and may only attend the tryouts for the Franchise who drafted them.

1.9 After the completion of the Draft, if a Franchise still has room on their forty-five (45) Man Protected List, the Franchise may add Junior B Tier I Free Agents if the player provides written permission to be added to the Franchise's Protected List to both the RMLL Executive Director and the Junior B Tier I Commissioner.

1.10 The day immediately following the Draft, the draft host or the Junior B Tier I Commissioner must e-mail the list of Draftees, (Franchise pick, player name and Minor Club from) to the RMLL Executive Director.

2. ALBERTA Junior B Tier I Thirty-Five (35) Man Protected List

2.1 Each Tier I Franchise will have and will manage a thirty-five (35) Man Protected List of players of Junior eligibility to which they hold the absolute playing rights.

2.2 Each Franchise's thirty-five (35) Man Protected List must include the player's first and last name and their date of birth.

2.3 The RMLL Franchise Primary Contact is responsible for maintaining their Franchise's thirty-five (35) Man Protected List and communicating all revisions to the Junior B Tier I Commissioner and the RMLL Executive Director.
